APPLETON WON'T FEEL STRIKE IN SOFT COAL MINES

Manufacturers Have Enough
Coal on Hand to Carry Them Over Long Period

Appleton probably will not feel the effects of the general strike of union coal miners which will go into effect on April 1, it is believed by local fuel dealers and heads of industries in the Fox river valley. It is likely that the strike will not last long and dealers and manufacturers say, because the strength of the unions in the coal mining districts has been decreasing each year and it is probable that an agreement will be reached.

Most of the miners who expect to strike work in the western soft coal mines. The miners in the eastern coal states where Pocahontas coal is produced generally do not belong to the union and there is little likelihood of a strike there. Pocahontas coal is burned in the majority of Appleton homes and the price on this type of coal probably will not be affected.

Another factor which tends to decrease the seriousness of the coal strike is the fact that coal consumption in Appleton has practically ceased, and as there will be no demand the price will remain stationary.

Practically all large industries of the valley report they have sufficient coal on hand to carry them over for three or four months, by which time they believe the strike will have been settled. In addition there is a large surplus of coal on hand at the mines and consumers will have little trouble purchasing the necessary amount to keep their machines going.

ARREST MAN HERE FOR POLICE IN MANITOWOC

Wanted in Manitowoc for forgery checks, William W. Sufman, alias "Red Sufman," was arrested here Wednesday morning at a local hotel by Sgt. John Duval of the police department, and lodged in a cell at the police station. Chief Anton Kozlowski of the Manitowoc police department was expected here Wednesday to take the prisoner back to that city. The Appleton department, in a letter received Wednesday morning, was asked to arrest the young man who was believed to be in this city, and he was picked up a little later by Sgt. Duval.

MISSIONARY SPEAKS AT COLLEGE CHAPEL

Miss Edna Hutchins, teacher and missionary from Lucknow, India, and a graduate of Lawrence college in the class of 1910, spoke to Lawrence college students at convocation services Tuesday morning. She described her mission work to which she will return soon. Her appearance in Appleton was her last in this country.

Miss Hutchins came to Appleton to speak at the meeting of the foreign missionary society of the First Methodist church on Tuesday.

DOG BITES YOUTH ON HIS WAY TO SCHOOL

While on his way to school Tuesday morning Charles Kuck, 14, of 220 E. Pacific-st., was bitten in the right leg by a dog as he was walking in the 900 block on N. Union-st. The dog bit the youth between the knee and ankle, but the injury was not serious and the boy continued on his way to school. A slight bruise was the only consequence, it was reported to police.

FINISH ARRANGEMENTS FOR ROTARY JUBILEE

Final arrangements for the celebration of the tenth anniversary of Rotary in Appleton Saturday night at the Masonic temple were made at a meeting of club directors at Hotel Northern Tuesday night. Harry Rogers of San Antonio, Texas, president of Rotary International, will be the speaker.

WIRE TICKS

New York—(AP)—Peaches is planning some beautification. Unless more cancellations prevent her earning that $24,000 a week on the stage and in cabarets, she intends paying $10,000 to a specialist who improved Fannie Brice's nose and has a reputation for making fat actresses slim. The doctor hopes to heal those horrid scars on the neck and put an end to the embarrassment caused by the mode of the day.

New York—Flo Ziegfeld disagrees with Mary Lewis and Fritz Scheff, who, for a good consideration, of course, have been telling in ads how nice cigars are for singers. Flo is forbidding all members of his casts to smoke.

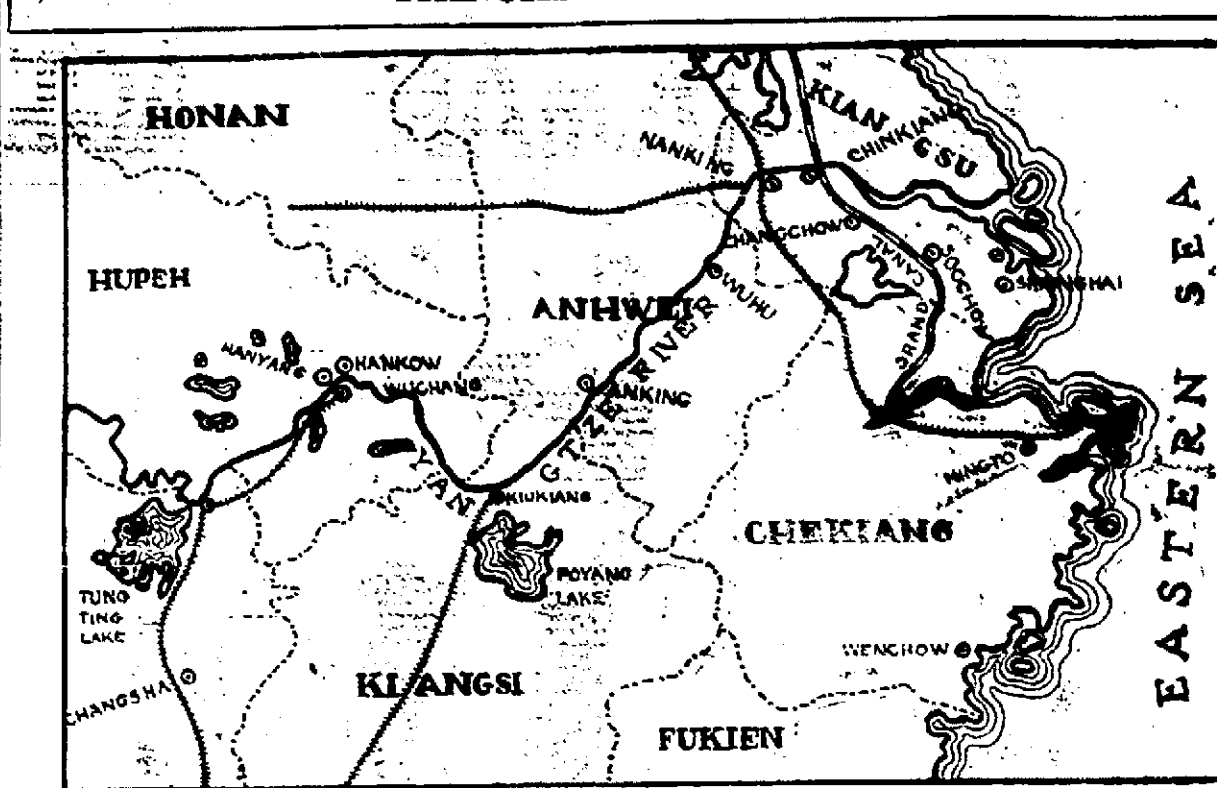

New Orleans—Signor De Pinedo should worry about a bachelor tax of $50 a year that he must pay at home. "It's worth more than that to be single," he says.

Rome—In the next war De Pinedo perhaps will have some fair assistants. The government announces women are to be used in the aeronautical service principally at frontier posts watching for enemy craft.

Daytona Beach, Fla.—Quite appropriate for the man who moved on earth faster than anything else to talk with the wife at home as quickly as possible. After his whirlwind automobile race Major Segrave used the radio phone to England. Presumably he told the Mrs. that he had four shiny dimes from John D. Rockefeller one for himself, one for her and two for his parents.

Open Barbashop
Hugo Fankratz and Anthony Natrop will be joint proprietors of the Northern Hotel Barber Shop which opens Friday, April 1. Both men formerly were employed at Hotel Appleton shop.

THE CHINESE WAR ZONE

This map shows the present war zone in China—the Yangtze river valley, where flames the yellow torrent of anti-foreign rebellion. American and British warships are patrolling this river, while foreigners are being evacuated as rapidly as possible.

GOOD STUDENT IS BEST COLLEGE ADVERTISEMENT

A college is best advertised through its students and Lawrence has a high standard of students to advertise. Dr. Henry M. Wriston, president, said in an address to students at convocation services Monday morning. Lawrence has a high standing among midwestern colleges and the tone of the student body is largely a product of the students themselves.

The president spoke of the high standing of the faculty of the school, the standing of the institution in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, in the Association of American Universities, and in the American Association of University Women, and of the sound public sentiment existing within the college.

APPLETON COKE MAY SUPPLY WHOLE VALLEY

The advisability of distributing coke manufactured by the Wisconsin Traction Light Heat and Power Co. in Neenah, Menasha, Kimberly, Little Chute, Kaukauna was presented to dealers from those cities by A. K. Ellis, vice president and general manager of the company, at a meeting at the Conway hotel Tuesday. Appleton dealers have been selling the coke for the past six months but the supply of the company is larger than can be handled here. The volume of coke made here as a by-product of the company has been increased from 2,000 tons a year to 12,000 tons.

Dealers from nearby cities have taken the proposition under advisement, but it was believed they would undertake sale of the coke.

RIPON COLLEGE CLUB SINGS CONCERT HERE

Ripon college glee club will sing a sacred concert at First Congregational church Sunday evening, April 10, according to word received Wednesday by Dr. H. E. Peschke, pastor of the church, from Samuel N. Pickard, manager of the club. The concert will be at 7:30 in the evening in place of the regular Sunday evening motion picture service. The public is invited to attend the concert which will be free.

DECORATORS DEFER BUSINESS MEETING

The Appleton Interior Decorators association met for dinner at the Conway hotel Tuesday evening. The business meeting postponed until Friday evening. Members will have dinner at the hotel and the meeting will follow.

SALTER SPEAKER AT LENT SHOP MEETING

The Rev. E. M. Salter of First Baptist church was the speaker at the lent shop meeting Wednesday noon at the Appleton Woolen Mills. William Meyer played cornet solos on Friday noon the Rev. B. Scott of Memorial Presbyterian church will talk at the Wisconsin Wire Works meeting. Violin and cornet duets will be on the program.

INVITE SPORTSMEN TO CHARTER DINNER

Out-door Men Celebrate
When Walton Chapter No.
1 Gets Charter

All residents of Appleton and vicinity, interested in conservation of forests, fish or game have been invited to attend the charter presentation meeting of Appleton chapter No. 1 of the Izaak Walton League of America at 6:30 Thursday evening in the Crystal room of the Conway hotel according to Richard Sykes, temporary president. Special invitations have been given to members of Outagamie County Fish and Game Protective Association.

The chapter, which was organized a few weeks ago, will receive its charter and permanent officers will be elected. A delegate to the fifth annual national convention of the league at Hotel Sherman, Chicago, April 7, 8 and 9, also will be chosen and membership buttons and cards will be distributed to charter members. Sherman Brown, Milwaukee, state president, will be the principal speaker. Others will be Judge Henry Grass, Green Bay, fourth national vice president, and Frank Grass, Sturgeon Bay, secretary-treasurer of the state association.

Herbert Hoover will be the principal speaker at the national convention and another feature will be a talk by Jack Miner of Cand. The banquet closing the big meeting will be held at 8:30 on the evening of April 9. Railroads have granted a special rate of a fare and a half for the round trip. Several local likes, besides the official delegate, expect to attend the sessions.

BUILDING PERMITS

Two building permits authorizing construction estimated at $6,200 were issued by the building inspector Wednesday. They were issued as follows: Kimberly Real Estate company, residence and garage at 525 E. McKinley-st.; Carl Gelbohm, garage at 315 E. Hancock-st.

Blonde bathers of Sweden are taking to American-made bathing caps.

Y VOLLEYBALLERS WIN FROM K-C MILL TEAM

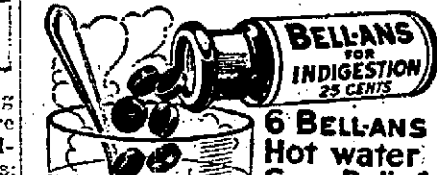

Appleton Y. M. C. A. volleyball team, an entrant in the state tournament at Madison in April, won four of five games of a practice match with the Kimberly-Clark mill team of Kimberly Tuesday evening at the association gymnasium. Appleton took the first game, 15 to 12 and lost the second 13 to 15, and won the next three 15 to 12, 15 to 11 and 15 to 10. The Kimberly team is entered in the district tourney here next week. It won the meet last year. The Appleton team does not enter the district meet, going directly into the state tourney because of its strength as compared with the regular district entrants.

Members of the graduating class were: Bernice Anderson, Esther Arnold, Unis Bloomer, Marie Butler, Evelyn Court, Marie Dertfus, Myrtle Farrell, Cecile Fisher, Ruth Glaser, Helen Hartung, Amanda Kilpstein, Laura Kolberg, Verne Larsen, Grace Melzer, Rita Mittag, Margaret O'Shea, Myrna Peink, Mildred Schwahn, Regina Seaman, Agnes Thebo, Elizabeth Thebo, Thelma Thorpe, Nina Turton, Alma Zipperer.

CREWS READY TO START FILLING SEWER TRENCHES

The snow storm Monday and Tuesday prevented Anthony Tomasun, Fond du Lac contractor, from starting repair work on S. Kernan-ave. but as soon as the ground dried sufficiently, probably before the end of the week, workmen will have started repairs, according to R. F. Hackworthy, street commissioner. Sewers were laid on Kernan-ave last fall and winter arrived before the job could be finished. The pipe was laid, however, and refills were made but during the winter the ground has sunk considerably and these sink holes again will be refilled.

24 "PHONE" GIRLS END HEALTH COURSE

Give Certificates to Young Women at Commencement
Program and Dinner

Graduating exercises and a program were held at the Conway hotel Tuesday evening for 24 girls employed at the Appleton office of the Wisconsin Telephone Co., who have completed a 12 weeks course in health sponsored by the company. Miss Florence McMaster, district health instructor, was the teacher, and talked at the meeting. The course is open to all girls employed by the company. Diplomas are awarded at its completion.

E. L. Griesse was toastmaster at the banquet. Talks were given by Miss Unis Bloomer, representing the class; Miss McMaster; F. N. McEniry, general commercial superintendent of the company from Milwaukee; and Dr. C. C. Reed of Appleton. The certificates were distributed by F. N. Bloomer, acting district manager. Miss Josephine Arndt gave a reading "His Place in the Line" by Marion Hill, and musical selections were given by: Miss Laura Kolberg, song, "Pal of My Gracie Days," Miss Myrtle Farrell, song, "Moonlight and Roses," Miss Delia Drussow, piano solo, "Lifefreud," and Miss Farrell and Clarence Richter, vocal duet, "When Honey Sings an Old Time Song."

Members of the graduating class were: Bernice Anderson, Esther Arnold, Unis Bloomer, Marie Butler, Evelyn Court, Marie Dertfus, Myrtle Farrell, Cecile Fisher, Ruth Glaser, Helen Hartung, Amanda Kilpstein, Laura Kolberg, Verne Larsen, Grace Melzer, Rita Mittag, Margaret O'Shea, Myrna Peink, Mildred Schwahn, Regina Seaman, Agnes Thebo, Elizabeth Thebo, Thelma Thorpe, Nina Turton, Alma Zipperer.

NORTHERN LEGIONAIRES STOP HERE FOR VISIT

F. A. Hirzy, Stevens Point, vice commander of the Wisconsin department of the American Legion, Dr. A. M. Christofferson, commander of the Waupaca legion post, and Postmaster W. J. Nelson, and B. M. Barnes of Waupaca, also legionnaires, visited the Badger Legionaire offices Wednesday morning. The men were on their way to Madison where they were to appear before a senate committee Wednesday afternoon at a hearing on a bill proposing to admit World War veterans to the Wisconsin Veterans home at Waupaca. The Waupaca post is pushing passage of the bill.

NOW YOU Ask One

PRESENT-DAY LITERATURE

Books are being sold nowadays at a rate to amaze writers of a former generation. Are you keeping in touch with them? If so, "Now You Ask One" for today won't be hard for you. You'll find the answers on page 9.

1—What English novelist is the grandson of a famous scientist who was one of Darwin's most noted contemporaries?

2—Who is Heywood Brown?

3—What university professor recently became famous because of his satirical, slightly irreverent novels about Helen of Troy and Sir Galahad?

4—Who wrote "Dark Laughter"?

5—About 30 years ago, Stephen Crane wrote a short novel about a Civil War soldier. Unnoticed for years, this book has recently been acclaimed as one of America's literary masterpieces. What is its name?

6—Who wrote "Ulysses"?

7—Which of Conrad's novels deals with a silver mine and a revolution in a mythical Central American country?

8—What is Carl Van Vechten's most recent novel?

9—Who wrote "The Reckoning Bachelor"?

10—In what novel, by whom, is Eugene Witla the central character?

FAHRBACH BOUND OVER FOR TRIAL

Driver of Death Car Must Face Manslaughter Charge
in Circuit Court

George Fahrbach, Menasha, Tuesday afternoon was bound over to trial in circuit court for manslaughter, at his preliminary examination in municipal court before Judge Theodore Berg. Bail of $1,000, fixed at the time of his arraignment, was not increased. His mother furnished the bail.

Fahrbach, driver of the automobile which ran down Miss Gertrude Becker, town of Greenville, Saturday evening, March 5, fatally injuring her, was held negligently by a coroner's jury which held its inquest on Thursday, March 10. On a warrant issued by the district attorney, he was arrested in Menasha the following Monday by Menasha police and turned over to the police of this city.

The victim of the accident, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker of Greenville, was 17 years old. She was returning to the home of relatives with whom she was living here when she was injured. She was struck at the corner of S. Cherry-st. and W. Prospect-ave, apparently somewhere near the northwest corner, and along the west side of the street. Fahrbach, who was accompanied by three young men in his Ford coupe, was coming into the city from the south. He did not see the girl until he was practically upon her, he told the coroner's jury.

The girl died the following Monday morning from a fractured skull.

A Better Sunday Dinner If You Place Your Order Early

HOSE who wish especially choice meat for their Sunday dinner will find it greatly to their advantage to place their order as early as possible. Voecks Bros. advise this because they do not wish to have their reputation for fine meat jeopardized by rush orders at the last minute. Although every precaution is taken to assure you of the finest meat and a type of service that no other market duplicates — it is only natural that when speed is required quality must suffer. So that we might spend enough time in preparing and selecting your meat—it would be to your advantage to place your Sunday order on Thursday or Friday.

10 TENNIS COURTS TO BE AVAILABLE HERE NEXT SUMMER

Six New Courts Will Be Built in Pierce Park, and Two in Alicia Park

Six tennis courts in Pierce park and four in Alicia park will be available to tennis players next summer, according to Professor O. P. Fairfield of the park commission. Two of the courts in Alicia park were in use last year and proved very popular, according to Professor Fairfield, and two more are being added this year to take care of the crowds. The six courts in Pierce park are included in the improvement program there. They will be ready about July 1.

No other tennis courts being planned in the city because there has been no demand for them according to Professor Fairfield. If application is made by any group of people for tennis courts in other locations the park board will be glad to investigate the conditions and establish the courts, providing a demand for them can be shown, Professor Fairfield said.

FUR COAT STOLEN FROM STORE IN FOND DU LAC

Theft of a fur coat worth $450 from the A. E. Isaac store at Fond du Lac last week has been reported to the police department. A party consisting of a man and two women is believed to have taken the garment. The coat is black Hudson seal, with shawl collar and large cuffs of brown squirrel. The man is between 35 and 40 years old, six feet tall, and between 165 and 170 pounds in weight. One of the women has reddish blonde hair, weighs about 125 pounds and is 5 feet 3 inches tall. The other woman is 25, 5 feet 6 inches tall and 125 pounds in weight.

"Art Magazines" Aren't Available In Appleton

The so-called "art magazine" is a thing of the past and its call is over in Appleton local news dealers point out in answering the question "What has been done here with regard to the fight against publications of this type?" Jobbers no longer send consignments of these magazines to local dealers because they feel it does not pay to take the chance of handling the sheets.

Such magazines were not obscene, one dealer said, even though Summer and others fought them on the grounds that they violated the obscene literature law. They were not for young children to see nor for morons, but would not harm in any way a normal adult, he said. Appleton dealers were careful not to sell such magazines to minors, they said, just as they have been careful not to sell cigarettes to minors.

The call here was never great. It was learned, as most people would not feel they were worth the 25-cent par-

180 GET CERTIFICATES FROM SAFETY SCHOOL

About 180 men from the industries at Kaukauna, Neenah, Menasha, Appleton and Kimberly will receive certificates at the final meeting of the Appleton Safety school at Knights of Pythias hall at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, according to H. G. Noyes, general secretary of the school. All those who have attended at least five sessions of the school will be awarded certificates. Herb Hellig, director of Appleton Vocational school will make the presentation.

FILE BRIEFS IN INJUNCTION SUIT

Judge Byron B. Park Will Not Conduct Hearing Here on Restricting Order

Instead of conducting a hearing here Thursday on the injunction suit recently brought against the city treasurer and the county by the city, in which it is sought to withhold $100,483 in alleged illegal taxes from the county, Judge Byron B. Park, Stevens Point, will decide the issue on briefs to be filed by the lawyers, it is learned.

John A. Lonsdorf, district attorney, in answering the complaint for the county, denied that an illegal excess of $240,195.40 was levied for the general county tax with fraudulent intent to create a surplus in the general fund and by subterfuge to appropriate the surplus for roads in excess of the 2 mill tax. The answer is similar to that filed in the tax suit instituted by George Richard, Appleton.

The answer to the injunction also alleges that the amount set aside for general county purposes is necessary. The allegation of the city that illegal taxes have been collected by it also is denied, as is the statement that if the tax is held to be illegal, it would subject the city to controversies. The county denies that the city would be irreparably injured if the city treasurer paid over all the tax money.

Both Mr. Lonsdorf and Albert J. Krugmeier, special attorney for the city, are preparing their briefs.

Service Before Profits

"Labor efficiency starts in the heart," says John A. Piquet in an article published in Independent Management.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that to be a profound observation, economically sound.

The efficiency achieved in the organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the result of its recognition of the human factors that enter into business.

In this highly complex modern world, every man has his specialized job whose ultimate object is the serving of his fellowmen. That is the conception of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) exists to serve the thirty million people of the Middle West. Supplying them with petroleum products of the highest quality is part of that service.

Twenty-nine thousand men and women are employed in this vast task. Capital to carry on this work of service is furnished by more than fifty thousand stockholders.

The time and energy of thousands of people and the money of many thousands more, wisely combined and directed, have made it possible for you to get gasoline for your car—or any other product of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)—wherever you may happen to be in the Middle West. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) exists to serve you.

A spirit of service dominates the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), not only in its attitude toward the public, but in the relationships between the different parts of the organization.

There is a feeling of sympathy and fellowship among the employees and the directors of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). The size of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has not destroyed its personal, human qualities.

The executives in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) today were once subordinates. As a consequence they have an intimate understanding of the problems confronting the men and women who are following their leadership.

Many tributes have been paid to the labor efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). That efficiency emanates from the heart.

A man who is engaged in a work which inspires his loyalty and enthusiasm—who knows the comradeship of other men engaged in the same big task—who has the confidence that a great organization is back of him, interested in his welfare and happiness—is ready to give the very best that is in him to his work. He is an efficient, happy worker.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is made up of 29,000 such workers.

Because of this efficiency, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to operate at a profit which provides reasonable returns to the stockholders on their investments. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has proved that when service is the first concern the profits take care of themselves.

27 CANDIDATES GET NAMES ON BALLOT IN APRIL ELECTION

More Than One Contestant for Almost Every Job Open This Year

Neenah—Sample ballots for the election next Tuesday, bear the names of 27 men who are seeking offices in Neenah. Several others had nomination papers in circulation but failed to file them in time so their names will not be on the ballot.

There are three seeking the office of justice of the peace. They are: Oscar Baldwin, Chris Jensen and E. W. Thurston.

There are three candidates for the assessor's job. J. J. Baird has been filling the office during the unexpected term of Carl Clausen who died a year ago. The other candidates are Eli Deinet and John P. Keating.

The first ward has four candidates for alderman. S. W. Marty is seeking reelection and is seeking reelection alderman and is seeking reelection alderman.

There are four candidates for alderman in the second ward. They are: George Danke, Charles Eberlein, Victor Larson and George Seitz. There are now candidates for supervisor.

Three candidates are seeking reelection as alderman in the third ward. Louis Miller, the present alderman is seeking reelection. The others are Joseph Bensenstein and Hans C. Rasmussen. Frank L. Laird is seeking reelection as supervisor.

Two candidates are out for alderman in the fourth ward. Hans J. Laurson is seeking reelection for 10 years as alderman. The other candidate is Robert Anderson. The other candidate, Henry Schultz is out for reelection as supervisor.

Two candidates appear in the fifth ward for the office of alderman. William Schmidt, Jr., who has been alderman in that ward for the last 15 years is seeking reelection. The other candidate, Charles Korotev is the candidate for reelection as supervisor.

The voting booths are in the same place as in former years. The first and second wards vote at the city hall. Third and fifth wards vote at the gymnasium and the fourth ward at the city building on the school grounds.

Polls will open at 6 o'clock in the morning and close at 8 o'clock in the evening.

TROOP 3 PREPARES FOR OSHKOSH SCOUT MEETING

Neenah—Plans were completed Tuesday evening by Troop 3 of St. Thomas church at its regular weekly meeting for an inter-troop meet Friday night with Oshkosh troop No. 8. The get-together will be part exhibition and part competition between the two troops. The Neenah organization will leave the parish hall for Oshkosh at 6:15 in its truck "Spring Fever," accompanied by several troop members.

Two more events in the troop inter-troop contest were run off at the Tuesday evening meeting. In the present time the Raccons are in the lead in the race for hiking equipment prizes which will be given out next week. Members of this troop and representatives from other Twin City scout organizations gave exhibition of scouting at the Tuesday noon luncheon of Kiwanis club. The stunts were presented under the leadership of Senior Patrol Leader Donald Busch of Troop 3.

LYMAN, ANGERED BY "DRIVER'S" ATTACK, ANSWERS HIS CRITIC

Menasha Police Chief Says His Force Is Lenient With Car Drivers

Menasha—In a contribution to The People's Forum of the Post-Crescent issue of Thursday, March 24, the writer who signs himself An Appleton Driver, and who takes to task traffic regulations in that city, goes out of his way to misrepresent Menasha. One paragraph reads:

"Then another thing, is 25 miles an hour a too fast on an arterial highway? And also what is the idea of taking violators to the station? Is this not a waste of time? Is the license number not proof enough? What has become of the tickets? Fondly has cut out the speed issue, is still looking for the unwary motorists. Are we in a class with Menasha? I hope not."

Chief of Police James Lyman denies very emphatically that there are any speed traps in Menasha or that any member of his department is laying for "unwary" motorists. Menasha is more liberal in its traffic regulation than most cities in Fox River valley and the city is often criticised for its freedom in this respect. "We do not even have a motorcycle officer," the chief said.

As to taking violators to the police station that is never done in Menasha. Violators are invited to call at the police station and tickets are still in use, declared the chief. Twenty-five miles an hour is not considered excessive speed on an arterial highway by Chief Lyman.

LEGIONAIRES ARE GETTING READY FOR JOURNEY TO PARIS

Several Already Have Indicated Intention of Going to Paris in Fall

While no Appleton residents have registered officially for the national convention of the American Legion in Paris in September, several have signified their intention of going, according to H. L. "Peg" Plummer, national executive committee member from Wisconsin. The registration fee for the trip is $50 and the final registration date for local legionnaires is May 1.

Among those who probably will make the trip are Mr. Plummer, Edward P. Munn, leader of the Wisconsin state legion band, Stephen Rosebush and Charles Baker. Several other members of the 120th Field Artillery band also will make the trip to Paris with the state legion band. Among others who already are registered are Walter E. Rosebush, Milwaukee, Wash., a brother of Stephen and Judson G. Rosebush of Appleton, and Col. Frank J. Schmeller and wife and Frank Schmeller, Jr., Neenah. Mr. Rosebush operates the Washington paper mills. He was a major in the 132nd division, and was a commander of the Sixth district of the state legion.

Special trains will carry Wisconsin members to Montreal, Canada, from which port they will embark for Paris. Arrangements have been made by the state transportation committee, consisting of Joseph Piechowski, John Davies, and Thomas E. Shannon, all of Milwaukee, to charter a special train out of Chicago on Sept. 6, over the Grand Trunk and Canadian National Railways. If enough legionnaires make the pilgrimage to France, another special train over the Michigan Central Railway will be chartered. Arrangements call for all steel equipment with special facilities and stopovers at one or two points between Chicago and Montreal. Steamship passage for Wisconsin Legionnaires will be on the S. S. Melita of the Canadian Pacific Line.

After a rather slow start, reservations for the France voyage are now coming in rapidly, according to Howard Dessert, Mosinee, state France convention officer. To date 50 legion men and women have enrolled. Publication of the Legion, gives the following list of those who have signified their intention of traveling with the Wisconsin delegation to Paris:

Alma—James J. Gleasons; Barron—John Schultz; Chicago, Ill.—John Cahill, Fort Atkinson—Troy Geocounts; Fond du Lac—Edward Roll; Green Bay—Arthur McCarey and wife; Hartford—Ernest Rugeberg; Johnson Creek—Gilbert J. C.—Anna Tobey; Eau Claire—Helen Sprague; Whitewater—Charles J. Weiss and wife.

USUAL SHAPED CARDS PREFERRED IN MAIL

Local designers, printers, manufacturers, distributors, retailers of greeting cards again have been asked by the postoffice department to discontinue the design of the small and unusual shapes of cards. As they are manufactured and ordered often long before their use, which is most prevalent at Christmas time, the order has been issued in an effort to eliminate them entirely.

Much progress has been made in the past few years in decreasing the number of these small cards, but there is still work to be done, the department stated. The small cards and envelopes seriously retard and interfere with the smooth flow of work in postoffices. Such articles frequently cannot be run through the cancelling machines, thus necessitating the cancelling the stamps

TELEPHONE COMPANY TO SPEND $45,000 HERE

About $45,000 will be spent in improvements in Appleton by the Wisconsin Telephone Co. in the 1927 construction program which involves the expenditure of more than $6,000,000, according to word received from the general office of the company in Milwaukee by P. N. Belanger, district manager. Half of the sum to be spent here will be used within the plant and the remainder outside.

It is planned to spend about $2,000,000 in the city of Milwaukee and the remainder out-state. Between $15,000 and $50,000 will be used on construction work in Oshkosh, it was reported.

STATE REGISTERS 662,282 VEHICLES

Wisconsin Ranks Eleventh in Number of Registrations Issued in 1926

A total of 662,282 motor vehicles were registered in Wisconsin in 1926, netting receipts of $9,074,490, according to reports received from the bureau of public roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. In the United States there were 22,001,233 registrations issued with receipts of $288,282,352.

Wisconsin ranks eleventh in the number of registrations issued and twelfth in the total receipts. Florida with an increase of 46.2 per cent, not including non-resident registrations, shows a greater gain than any other State. Oklahoma with a gain of 17.8 per cent, and second only to Florida in respect to the amount of increase, was followed closely by Alabama, Idaho, Louisiana, Mississippi and Utah, all of which had increases over 15 per cent.

Of the total number of vehicles registered, 14,237,171 were passenger automobiles, taxis and busses and 2,764,222 were motor trucks and road tractors. The increase in motor trucks and road tractors amounted to 32.2 per cent, which is somewhat greater than any other class of motor vehicles, indicating a continuation of the development of commodity transportation by highway.

Receipts from registration fees, license fees, etc., amounted to $288,282,352 as compared with $260,619,621 in 1925. Of the gross receipts $190,406,969 was available for highway construction under the supervision of the State highway department. $51,702,184 was allocated to counties for expenditure on local roads and $25,274,158 was used to finance highway bond issues. The remainder was used for payment of collection costs and miscellaneous purposes.

Details concerning the number of vehicles registered and the revenue derived are given below.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. All Druggists.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 30c, 60c, adv.

PROSPERITY STAYS WITH US
It is announced from Washington that official government reports indicate that "prosperity has regained its full stride in American industry and business."

Contrary to the general impression, which viewed the first two months of the year with apprehension, distribution of goods in February broke all previous years for that month. Commerce is exceedingly active, as reflected in increasing railroad freight traffic, and the government reports new gains in industrial production. The textile industry alone remains in a lethargic condition, a depression which seems to have been aggravated rather than improved by two years of operation under extreme protection and a virtual restoration of the notorious Schedule K on wool and woolsens, which President Taft declared was indefensible. While factory production and employment in February were smaller than during the corresponding month of last year, production in the steel industry has steadily increased, and the government's survey and estimate are borne out by Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel corporation, who in an interview in Chicago declared that American business is healthy and sound and that "the condition of the steel industry has never been better." This is again reflected in the fact that U. S. Steel is at the highest price in its history. Mr. Schwab gives the credit for stable business to the conservatism of the Coolidge administration.

Whatever the causes, the quick recovery of the country from the uncertainty and noticeable recession at the opening of the year is cause for renewed satisfaction and confidence. It certainly proves that fundamentally conditions are sound and that there is every reason why the year 1927 should be an excellent and prosperous year. The wheels of commerce and industry are running smoothly and for the most part normally. Wholesale prices are still off, but there is a rising trend. Aside from sections of New England which are highly dependant on the textile industry, the situation of the farmer alone remains unsatisfactory. Even here, however, there has been improvement in the last two years and the outlook is better. National attention has been focused on his problems and there is no doubt that within a comparatively short time it will result in the solution of those which are essential to his betterment, either through legislative agencies or through the preferable channels of co-operative extension and the incorporation into agriculture of better practices and more helpful methods.

THE PEARL HARBOR TANKS

The navy department has decided to go ahead with the filling of the 4,200,000 barrel capacity oil tanks at Pearl Harbor, Hawaiian Islands, constructed by Edward L. Doheny as a part of the contract under which he leased certain naval oil lands in California. The tanks were built by Doheny under the agreements which he had for the lease of the Elk Hills, California, oil fields, the contents of which were to constitute a reserve supply for the United States navy.

When that transaction was recently held illegal by the supreme court on the ground that fraud was involved in it, there was much speculation concerning the Pearl Harbor tanks and for a time it looked as if nothing would be done about them.

Rear Admiral Rosseau, in charge of naval petroleum reserves, has, however, in the interim, been conducting negotiations with oil producing companies of the west coast and plans are now complete for the process of filling the tanks, which will take about a year, it is estimated. Under these agreements the navy will exchange crude oil from reserves numbers one and two for refined fuel oil, since the navy has no refinery of its own.

The strategic value of such a vast oil supply in this day of oil burning ships is easily apparent, especially in this particular location. The present unrest in China, emphasizing as it does an unrest in the whole Orient, serves to remind us that the Hawaiian Islands constitute the key to our western defenses, a base of naval operations that would be invaluable in the event of hostilities.

A base of operations without supplies, however, would be a farce. At present there are but 1,500,000 barrels of oil in the tanks, put there by Doheny, and much more is needed to make the base of real value. The navy department is to be commended for going ahead with the development of this unit in the defense fabric.

CLEARING UP THE ETHER

The first act of the Federation Radio commission was to serve notice on 40 broadcasting stations, noticing either the same wave lengths or lengths considered in conflict with those assigned to Canada, to seek new wave lengths or close up their stations. By an international understanding Canada is assigned six of the 95 broadcasting channels available. This understanding has been violated by American pirates, until during the last year reception from Canada was almost always nil in the United States. They have furthermore interfered with reception in Canada itself. Practically all of the 40 stations affected by the commission's order could be dispensed with without detriment to the listeners-in. Some of them are especially well known as chronic nuisances.

This is a good beginning. It would seem that the next step would be toward weeding out more of these nuisances by notifying all pirates which appropriated the higher wave bands, previously held by well established stations, to get off the air. A number of the worst offenders in this respect come from the mid-west and include certain stations in Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. They are sales agencies for seeds, or one thing and another, and their programs are of purely local interest, yet they are spoiling some of the best programs of national interest put on the air. They should be dealt with quickly and vigorously. The public will approve their speedy elimination. They should either be returned to the lower wave lengths they originally occupied or closed up altogether.

One thing the public would like to see is the reservation of wave bands to stations which operate either singly or in chain for the broadcasting of high class talent, during the hours these artists are on the air, so that the reception will not be heterodyned. The stations using the same bands could be assigned different hours when these programs are on and the same hours when they are not. The reduction of the total number of broadcasting licenses, and by this we mean a very substantial reduction, if it could be brought about would result in greatly improved reception. If they cannot be cancelled, it would seem that a practical solution would be to put the "rabble" into the low wave channels and compel them to reduce their power so that they could be heard only locally.

OLD MASTERS

O, yet we trust that somehow good
Will be the final goal of ill.
To pang of nature, sins of will,
Defects of doubt, and taints of blood;
That nothing walks with aimless feet;
That not one life shall be destroyed
Or cast as rubbish to the void
When God has made the pile complete.

That not a worm is cloven in vain;
That not a moth with vain desire
Is shrivelled in a fruitless fire,
Or but subserves another's gain.

Behold, we know not anything;
I can but trust that good shall fall
At last—far off—at last, to all,
And every winter change to spring.

So runs my dream; but what am I?
An infant crying in the night;
An infant crying for a light,
And with no language but a cry.

—Tennyson, from "In Memoriam."

THOUGHTS ON TOIL

Only 38 of every 100 Americans work for a livelihood, statisticians reveal. What? 71,200,000 boot-leggers! The figures may be misleading, though. Among the 62 who don't work for a living there should be listed several Pullman porters and press agents, who only go through the motions. The percentage of workers used to be larger. That was before so many people took to the water for a living. There's one man, however, we are sure works for a livelihood—he follows the Prince of Wales around and counts how many times he falls off his horse.

It is a quaint and curious fact that all the bunkers are not on the golf course.

A Connecticut professor spends his spare time on street corners in New York and London taking notes on people and things. We wonder how many bets he has been offered on the ponies.

ON THE TRAIL OF IMMUNITY

Before you read this enlightening treatise, know that the author believes exposure to cold or wet never causes illness of any kind. Now if you want to hear the rest of it, listen. It is necessary in a discussion of this question, to pitch tradition, legend, fancy and superstition into the scrap bucket and start with a clear field. Empirical evidence, deduction drawn from experience, has some weight. Circumstantial evidence has none.

If a man goes out for a walk on a damp or rainy day without his overcoats and gets his feet wet and presently develops sniffles or cough or something, that's circumstantial evidence. It is circumstantial because it just happens as a coincidence. The man is impressed with the coincidence because he has gone out for a walk on many a rainy or damp day without his rubbers and no indisposition followed. If indisposition or illness invariably or even usually followed such a wetting of the feet, that would be empirical evidence, and it would be reasonable and fair to deduce therefrom the belief that wetting of the feet has something to do with such illness. If a man invariably or even usually contracted such indisposition or illness from going out without his rubbers on, he would be such a darn fool to venture out without them that he would seem just as well for us to advise him there is no harm in it, since we believe in the survival of the fittest.

The old time doctors and some of our present public health administrators have said a good deal about this and that influence "lowering resistance." This is an invention which beguiles the lay mind and relieves the old time doctor or health officer of an embarrassing predicament. There is no scientific ground for the theory that any such condition or influence as fatigue, exposure to cold or wet, renders an individual more susceptible to infection. The theory is based wholly upon circumstantial evidence. Empirical evidence, actual experience, gives it no support. But it is a mighty convenient phrase, this "lowering of resistance," and it saves the old time doctors and the health officers who are of half cocked from admitting they have fallen into a grievous error in teaching that exposure to cold or wet has something to do with the causation of certain infections, especially certain of the respiratory infections.

From our present scientific knowledge of immunity we may say that:

1. Exposure to cold and wet has no demonstrable influence upon an individual's immunity to respiratory infections.
 2. The ultraviolet rays of sunlight seem to aid the development of immunity, especially immunity against infections of the upper respiratory tract.
 3. A liberal supply of vitamin-D (as in cod liver oil, the liver oils of fish generally and the body fat of marine animals like walrus seal and walrus which feed on fish or other marine animals) seems essential for the development of the optimum immunity against respiratory infections.
 4. There is little or no scientific evidence that the degree of immunity an individual has acquired can be seriously lowered by any temporary fault of hygiene or unhealthful environment, although unfavorable conditions may prevent or retard the development of immunity.
- Please paste these four scientific conclusions in your hat or somewhere for safe keeping until our next quarrel. We are going to hang some sound advice on them. Meanwhile, if you run across any scientifically disposed person who can or will take issue with any of these conclusions, I'll be happy to hear from him.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Dad Wins Ten Marbles
A. One Sunday during the winter I sat in church with wet feet through services which lasted 1 1/2 hours. As a result I now have a beautiful cold. Father says I did not catch cold by getting wet feet. I say I did. We've decided to let you decide. (There's a lot to be learned from this.)
A. Answer: This looks like taking candy away from a baby. But maybe the best is that of course I'll say father is right. It's that's the best I'll say father deserves to lose. Father ought to have known what I'd say. As betting commissioner I usually ask 10 per cent of the winners.

DIPLOMACY

A Fine Writer Tackles The Wrong Job

It is a highly uncomfortable experience to come upon a painfully commonplace book by a writer you have admired for years. When you despise a writer, it is rather pleasant to find that each succeeding book is commonplace. It is a kind of vindication of your judgement. But when you have been bowled over by a writer and then you find him doing stuff you are ashamed of, you have the same emotion that a base ball fan has who has worshiped Babe Ruth and has taken his best friend to a game to see Ruth swat out a home run only to have him fan the air every time he comes up to bat.

That is how I felt when I read "The Delectable Mountains" by Struthers Burt. It is a highly readable tale that the man who wrote a considerable number of five short stories, among them such classics as "Each In His Own Generation," "The Delectable Mountains," and "The Delectable Mountains." But it is so stated on the title page and Burt prints a dedicatory notice in the front of the book in which he presents the volume to Henry Van Dyke. Evidently the author thinks well of his novel.

This is the first novel of Burt's that I happen to have read but the experience has been such that I have no desire to read another. The publishers say it is on the jacket, "It is a moving story, told with humor, warmth and sophistication, and showing the author's unusual understanding of the social and intellectual conflicts peculiar to the present day." But publishers are always saying such things. And all that they say about this book is true of the short stories of Struthers Burt. I came to the reading of "The Delectable Mountains" prepared to be charmed and ready to give the author my complete admiration.

But there is not a single page in the book that rises above the level of the commonplace. It is even painfully commonplace. So far as I can see there is not the slightest reason why it should have been written. The story itself has been done a thousand times, but that would not necessarily count against it; most stories have been done a thousand times. But the author never once succeeds in making a character come alive. And he makes the novel the vehicle for foisting upon the reader a large mass of his personal opinions that only succeed in making the story unutterably dull.

These opinions may be important in themselves; that is besides the point. They have no more to do with this story than with anyone else's. And all that they say about this book is true of the short stories of Struthers Burt. I came to the reading of "The Delectable Mountains" prepared to be charmed and ready to give the author my complete admiration.

QUEER QUIRKS OF NATURE

BY ARTHUR N. PACK
President, American Nature Ass'n.
When young herring gulls are hatched they leave the nest almost immediately, wandering off into the grass or woods near the nest to find a hiding place and shelter from the sun that beats down on their sea-shore home.

The gulls nest in great colonies and there are hundreds, sometimes thousands of the young birds strutting out for themselves at the same time. It is the task of each mother gull to locate the hiding place of her own fledglings, unless she is at home when they leave, to see where they go.

Not only must she know where they are, but she must catch small fish for them and distribute them among her young.

The young gulls depend upon their soft, fluffy plumage to hide them among the grasses. They will allow an intruder to approach close enough to touch them without showing signs of fear.

Once they are touched, however, away they go, running as fast as their awkward legs can carry them in the direction of open water, where they swim out and so escape.

See-Sawing On Broadway

By Gilbert Swan

New York—A bright young man I met the other day is just about to make a comfortable fortune by showing the vast army of apartment dwellers how to exercise them outside the house.

However funny this may sound, please don't laugh.

The predicament of a poor pup in New York is no laughing matter. Dog-lovers will have dogs, although there is no place to park them, and many a prize-winning Airedale must share basement quarters with alley cats.

Along the Riverside drive, Fifth avenue, Madison and Park avenue belts many comfortable incomes are made by men of all races who play nursemaid to fine blooded dogs taking them for their daily walk in the park and looking after their meals.

Just after the evening meal, apartment dwellers by the hundred may be seen emerging with their pet poodles, and by the evening the stately or humid, the pup must get the air.

It was inevitable that someone would try to find a way out.

So up sprang a young man with a bright idea. It is a revolving platform, such as was made famous by Ben Hur, and it is called a "revolving platform" and it is operated by electricity and the family pet can take a run of several miles without leaving the front bedroom.

Pet stores thrive in New York. Loneliness is, to a great extent, responsible for the tight-fitting apartments into which humans must squeeze, and made gay by the presence of a canary, a couple of parakeets or a parrot.

One place on Fifth avenue specializes in queer birds and animals and fish, from baby alligators to gay-plumed songsters from the African jungles.

Why people buy them not even the proprietor has ever completely figured out, for the days of such pets in modern apartment houses are short.

Almost any day when the weather is pleasant, an entire neighborhood may be pursuing a pet monkey up a fire escape.

LLOYD GEORGE IS WORKING HARD TO REVIVE LIBERALS

Doughty Little Welshman Would Resuscitate Dwindling Party in House

BY MILTON BRONNER
London—There is a doughty little Welshman who once monopolized international headlines rolling up his sleeves and getting set to step out and whip the daylight out of the lords and dukes.

His name is Lloyd George and the biggest British public question in the world today is—what are we going to do with him?

This question is bigger than the coal question, the land question, the taxation question, because the solution of these three pressing problems depends very much on what happens to the Welsh wizard, L. G. in his own platform.

If he is shelved by his party, the Liberals, the "interests" will have their way. If he once more does come out on top, they will have hard sledding. And if he does come out on top he will have accomplished the greatest feat in British political history.

Lloyd George is trying to resuscitate the party. It has dwindled until its members in the House of Commons don't constitute a busload, but most of those have chosen him as their leader. But the other wing of the party is fighting him with a newly formed "Liberal Council."

The questions inside the party are complex:
Shall it be Lloyd George or anti? Shall it be truly Liberal or Whig? Shall it turn to the future or cling to the past?

Lloyd George's bitter enemies are Lord Asquith, Lord Grey and Walter Runciman. If one were going to speak geologically, he would say Lloyd George was a very live volcano, emitting the lava of new ideas. Asquith an extinct volcano. Grey nearly extinct. Runciman a mere spout.

The truth is, some of the men who formerly led the Liberal party have never been comfortable with the little Welshman. They have virtually read him out of membership.

They felt he didn't belong. He came from no great family. He attended no great university. He had no great fortune. He snapped his fingers at wing traditions. He had no bend in his back for a lord.

His opponents have never forgiven him the year 1909. That was the year of his great budget. He levied land taxes and coal royalty taxes and high-

Dandruff And Heredity Chief Causes Of Baldness

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

The definite cause of simple baldness are uncertain and there is much room for speculation. As a result, all sorts of factors are invoked to explain it, from the wearing of tight hats to improper methods of breathing. Some would go so far as to say that there is no such thing as hereditary baldness and to attribute all of the cases to sebaceous dermatitis or inflammation and dandruff.

This is an extreme view; but certainly the ravages of dandruff have to be taken into account in all cases of baldness, and in considering the causes of the condition no separation can be made between simple baldness and that due to dandruff.

Dandruff can be controlled in most cases by the simple hygiene of the scalp that has been recommended and by suitable treatment applied under competent advice. Unfortunately most people overdo the matter of making applications to the scalp, applying strong alcoholic hair tonics and washing the hair far too frequently.

MANY "CURES"
The popular remedies to prevent falling of the hair would fill an encyclopedia. Vibratory and electrical treatments, hair tonics that are supposed to feed the hair roots, crude kerosene, massage and manure cures, vacuum caps, and all sorts of colored rags, have had frequent and futile trials.

It is impossible to prescribe any method that will be of service in general. The health of the patient must be brought up to a high level, his diet and digestion may require attention, certain remedies which are known to affect the skin when given internally may be tried by the physician with caution, and applications may be made to the outside of the scalp, after study of the condition has shown whether the scalp is inflamed or requires stimulation.

The bald-headed man is likely to console himself with the bromide that "no grass grows on a busy street." He likes to feel that baldness is a sign of intelligence and a result of mental labor.

DON'T NEED HAIR
Baldness is more likely a manifestation of a transitional stage in human evolution. The warmth and other protection afforded by the hair are no longer of great importance to man. We now use a hat instead of relying for protection on a shock of hair as did our aboriginal ancestors.

This does not mean, however, that we can preserve our hair by discarding our hats. We are the results of our heredity and we would have to discard the hats of our ancestors for a great many generations that have gone before. According to figures assembled by Jackson and White, baldness is due to heredity in from 30 to 40 per cent of all cases.

FIND STONE AGE RELICS
Zurich—Hidden caves containing prehistoric relics of three distinct ages—stone, bronze and iron ages—have been found in the forests of Felsburg. Archaeologists have found pottery, quartz implements, bronze jewelry and weapons fashioned from bone. A fireplace had been built in one of the caves.

PHEASANTS ABLE TO LIVE THROUGH WISCONSIN WINTER

Birds Placed at Large in County Can Exist and Propagate, Experiment Shows

That ringneck pheasants can exist and propagate in this part of Wisconsin has been proved this winter by Outagamie County Fish and Game Protective association, which started an experiment with the birds two years ago. In spite of the severity of last winter, few died, and there are now about 150 birds in the county. The association started the experiment because its members were alarmed by the rapid decrease of native game birds. The pheasants were selected because they perhaps are the easiest of all the game birds to raise, officers of the association said. Native birds of American are so difficult to breed in captivity as to preclude the idea of raising them.

In 1925 the association feared to multiply and planted in the swamps of Black Creek 20 birds, nearly all of which wintered successfully. The following spring 5 more were set out and in July, 14 more were set out in the same place and 9 at Shiocton. In August, 14 were freed at Shiocton and in October, 29 at Black Creek. The hens set out the autumn before nested the succeeding spring and several broods of young were raised. Five or six cocks will be set out in April and 100 to 150 adults of both sexes in August. The planting probably will be made in and around Black Creek so that the birds will be fairly well concentrated. As they increase in numbers they will spread of their own volition to suitable locations.

All purchase of birds and experiments in raising them have been carried on by the association from its own funds. No outside sources will be solicited for the work it contemplates this year, the association officers said.

RIFLE CLUB ENDS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Organization Starts Second Year With Membership of 26 Shooters

Appleton Rifle and Pistol club of the National Rifle association completed a successful year this month and is preparing to start its second year, according to Lieutenant Helen C. Hussner, instructor and organizer of the association. The association started with 5 men, none of whom were much acquainted with small arms, increased to 24 members by September, 1926, and 22 by the close of the year. Twenty-six active members started 1927 and an associate membership for business and professional men was added.

The associate membership entitles the men to shoot at the indoor gallery a limited number of times but does not include a full course of instruction or outdoor range instruction. The outdoor range season will open about May 15 according to Lieut. Hussner. Last year eleven men qualified on the outdoor range, two experts, Capt. L. F. Grundeman and Lieut. Hussner, and nine marksmen. This year Lieut. Hussner expects to have several sharpshooters and more experts. The club still can take in a few more members. Rifles both .22 and .30 calibre are furnished by the government and membership in the organization is $4 a year.

CALLAHAN POINTS OUT NEED OF MEMORIAL DAY

Madison—(P)—To establish Memorial Day in the hearts of Wisconsin children is to preserve the ideals of America and it is the duty of the schools in this state to lead in the work, according to John Callahan, State superintendent of schools.

It is for this purpose that Mr. Callahan has supervised the printing and distribution of 15,000 Memorial Day Annuals. These booklets suggest material from which a suitable patriotic program may be arranged for the school.

The 50 page booklet also contains speeches by Presidents Harding and Coolidge and other patriotic excerpts, any of which might be used in memorial services.

These "Annuals" are being sent to county superintendents of schools throughout Wisconsin to be passed on to teachers and their pupils.

SAINT AND SINNER

By Anne Austin

At half past twelve that memorable first day of Cherry's trial for the murder of Ralph Cluny, Judge Grimshaw declared a recess.

When Cherry had been led away to her lonely luncheon in the prison, Bob took an arm of Faith and her father. "We'll have time to drive over to a decent hotel for lunch, I believe," he said in a low voice. "Don't let the reporters corner you for interviews."

"You seem to have a genius for getting through mobs," Faith told him a few minutes later, when they were seated in his car, which was threading its slow way through the traffic.

"My genius for evading reporters does not anywhere near approach Cherry's genius for picking jurors," Bob laughed. "Isn't she a marvel? Cool as a cucumber and wise as a serpent, even if she does look like a wide-eyed infant. And she never flinched once when the prospective jurors were asked if they had conscientious scruples against inflicting the death penalty. 'She has the courage of innocence,' Jim Lane said heavily. 'I—I was proud of her today.'

"So was I, Dad," Faith choked, tightening her arm about his shoulder.

"Chris' lawyer surely threw a bomb into the court this morning when he made application for a separate trial for Chris," Bob continued. "Funny how they kept the reporters from getting an inkling of it. Wonder how he's getting along?"

A newsboy sprang to the running board of the car as it was momentarily halted at a crossing.

"Extra: Chris 'Wiley' near death's door after operation!" the holleringer.

HOSPITAL EDUCATION IS CURE

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

HERE is a great contrast between the hospital of today and the hospital of a quarter of a century ago.

Leaving out the matter of clinics, therapeutics and diagnosis, to say nothing of new methods in operating, there is the fact of the building itself.

I cannot entirely efface the memory of a children's ward I visited in a downtown city hospital years ago. To begin with, the building was in a district submerged winter and summer in a London fog of crime and smoke, all the more hopeless and inescapable as it moved with the vapor of three rivers. It had a pasty quality that clung to the very walls. The sun was almost an unknown quantity.

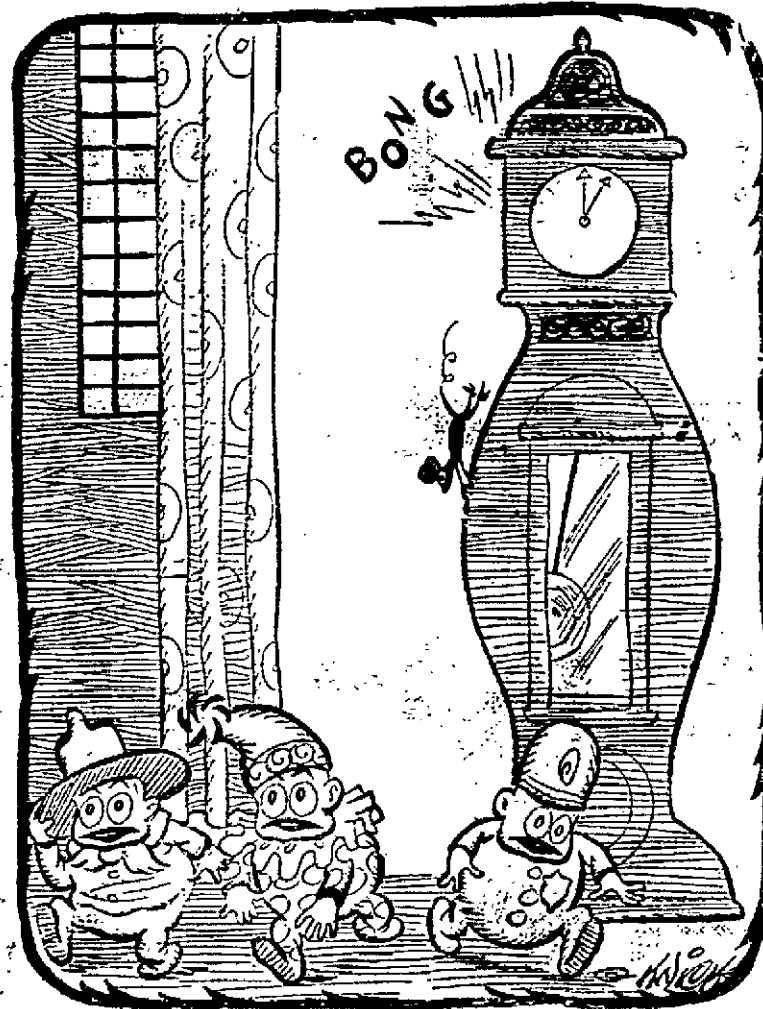

Inside the hospital the walls were painted an economical gray. The ceilings were unbelievably high—they must have seemed miles off to the sleepless little children. A few of the children had been in that room for years—quite a number had been there for months. I was told that one or two would never know any other room. There were several hospitals in the city. They were all alike—no one thought then of building in the open and giving the sun a chance. Of course there were no automotive ambulances. But even so, these children needed no ambulance. They should not have been in an emergency hospital at all.

That hospital has moved twice, each time farther away from the smoke and the clang of the mills. The latest one is costing three million dollars. And what part of it is being given the most special attention? The children's ward! It is a far cry from those gray smoky walls I remember to a solarium with real sand and a swimming pool with quartz windows—not glass, mind you—that will fully admit the healing rays of the sun and the penetrating ultra-violet ray.

Hospital education is one of the best things that is happening to us. The actual curative value of environment is undisputed. Our state of mind and our emotions can no longer be discounted as important factors in the functioning and metabolism of the body. Attractive interiors for the sick and attractive exteriors for the convalescent are the new keywords in building. Gardens, shrubbery, flowers, little gravel paths, perhaps a fountain. How important they are! The pessimists might say it puts a premium on sickness. That is, ridiculous and cruel. Anyone who begrudges a sick man, woman or child comfort because it happens to be beautiful, is a mean person indeed.

THE TINYMITES

By H. Cochran

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

POOR Mother Hubbard's hungry hound was shortly looking all around. He hadn't had a single bit since very early morn. "The cupboard, 'course, was very bare, because there was no food in there. The Tinnies didn't blame the dog for looking quite forlorn."

Old Mother said, "I can't arrange to buy him bones. I have no change. I wonder if you Tinnies know the best thing to be done." The Tinnies thought and thought, and thought. Said Scouty, "Well, we can't be caught by such a simple question." Then he soon was on the run.

"Where are you going?" Copy cried. "I'll be right back when I have tried a dandy plan," yelled Scouty, as he disappeared from sight. The others wondered where he went, and when an hour of time was spent, he came rushing in the house. He'd met success all right.

Said he, "I've brought meat for the pup." The dog, right quickly ate it up. Then Mother Hubbard smiled and asked, "Where did you get the meat?" "Oh, that was easy," Scouty said. "I knew the 'poor dog' must be fed, and so I bought it at a store, a short ways down the street."

Then Mother Hubbard told them all to run out in her long front hall. "You'll see a sight to make you laugh. Go right ahead," said she. The Tinnies, as they were told, knew that no one there would scold. And, in the hall they found a clock as big as it could be.

Just as they reached the queer old clock, they heard it going ticky tock. Then, as it struck the hour of one, a mouse ran down its side. Old Mother Hubbard laughed aloud to watch the frightened little crowd. The mouse had scared the Tinnies. "Oh, save us," Clowzy cried.

Love Letters Of The Great

AS COMPILED BY DIANA RICE

MARY WELLS-TECRAFT

1855-1895

This gifted woman whose early life was clouded by a cruel and drunken father was one of the early advocates for social and political rights for women. It was after she had watched the misery of her mother and also of a beloved sister who was deserted by an unscrupulous husband that she wrote "A Vindication of the Rights of Woman." All through her life she worked and wrote for the cause of woman for whom she claimed greater educational opportunities. It was about 1793, that this talented Englishwoman met in Paris the man who later caused her such great unhappiness, Captain Gilbert Miller, an American. Her letters show the love she had for him and the misery of separation when he parted himself unworthily. Mary Wells-tecraft later married William Godwin and died giving birth to the daughter who became the wife of poet Shelley.

Mary Wells-tecraft to Captain Miller

Wednesday Morning, August 1755.

I will never, if I am strictly cured of uncharitableness, begin to encourage "quick-coming fancies" when we are separated. Yesterday, my love, I could not open your letter for some time, and though it was not half so severe as I merited, it threw me into such a fit of trembling as seriously alarmed me. I did not, as you may suppose, care for a little pain on my own account, but all the fears I had for a few days past returned with fresh force. This morning I am better; will you not be glad to hear it? You perceive that sorrow has almost made a child of me, and that I want to be soothed to peace.

One thing you mistake in my character, and imagine that to be coldness which is just the contrary. For when I am hurt by the person most dear to me, I must let out a whole torrent of emotions, or else still them altogether, and it appears to me almost a duty to still them when I imagine that I am treated with coldness. I am afraid that I have vexed you, my own. I know the quickness of your feelings, and let me, in the sincerity of my heart, assure you there is nothing I would not suffer to make you happy. My own happiness wholly depends on you, knowing you as I do, when my reason is not clouded, I look forward to a rational prospect of as much felicity as the earth affords, with a dash of rapture into the bargain if you will look at me, when we meet again, with the look with which you have sometimes greeted

Your humbled yet most affectionate, Mary.

President Grant during his entire term of office, did not make a single public address.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY

BREAKFAST—Orange juice cereal, cream, rich waffles, new maple syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Shrimp stew, toasted crackers, lettuce rolls, rye bread and butter sandwiches, rice pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Grilled fresh cod, rice potatoes, green peas, stuffed prunes.

DESSERT—Cinnamon toast, bran bread, pineapple-ice-cream cake, milk, coffee.

Many squares of hot cinnamon toast are served with the dinner salad. The prunes themselves are soaked overnight in cold water to cover and then very gently simmered in the same water until plump but not soft. Drain, chill and remove stones. Then stuff with a combination of peanut butter and cream cheese.

Shrimp stew is out of the ordinary and quite as acceptable as oyster stew.

SHRIMP STEW

One pound fresh shrimps, 4 tablespoons butter, 2-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 3 cups milk, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Remove shells from fish and with a sharp pointed knife remove tiny dark vein. Wash thoroughly and run cold water through them. Drain slightly. Put butter and shrimps into stew pan, add salt, pepper, paprika and celery salt, cover and simmer over a low fire for fifteen minutes. Add milk and bring to the boiling point. Rub flour into 1 tablespoon butter and stir into hot stew. Cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Sprinkle with parsley and serve with toasted crackers. (Copyright, 1927, NEA Service, Inc.)

FOR SKIN IRRITATIONS

ONE MUST HAVE POISE TO MAKE DRESS LOOK ITS BEST; EXERCISE IS WAY TO ATTAIN POISE OF CARRIAGE

BY NINON

WHAT a stunning costume! you exclaim admiringly as you view a new spring creation on a manikin.

But, do you realize that half the beauty of clothes lies in the way they are worn? The smartest of Easter ensembles cries for a graceful bearing and a spring walk to set it off.

Exercise that teaches muscular control lies at the bottom of every graceful walk. The battle for grace begins at the waist line. If you let your body sag or grow stiff, how can you swing along as if you owned the world? You can't.

Perhaps you are one of the guilty ones who have neglected exercise for the selection of new hats and frocks. If so, it is high time you mend your ways. And here are the exercises to limber your back and line you up for a walk of distinction.

First turn on a phonograph record with real verve. Music, I repeat, should always accompany exercises. Stand erect, head up, back straight, finger-tips on hips. Rest your weight on one foot, and swing the other out in front of you, with a kick as high as you can without bending your trunk. Now swing it out behind you, then to the front until it resembles a pendulum, swing higher and higher each time. If necessary, hold onto a door to keep from losing your balance though it is better done without support.

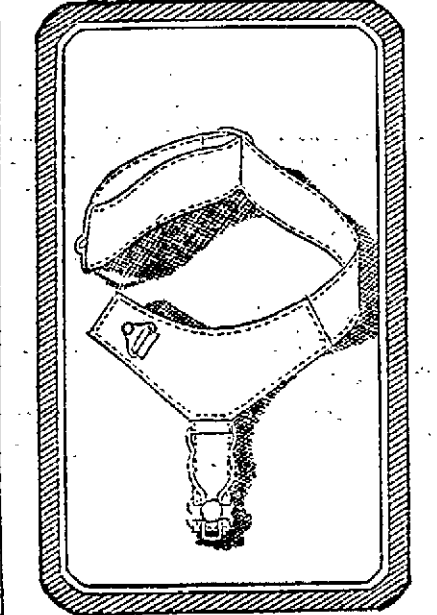

Now you are ready for the stretch kick illustrated at the right. Rest the body on one foot again. Lean the trunk forward, simultaneously stretching the other foot as far behind you as you possibly can and as high.

Can you feel the muscles tightening at the waistline? This will loosen them up. Hold the position a few measures of music then straighten up and repeat with the other foot. Repeat a dozen times, trying to stretch the trunk and the foot farther each time.

A few minutes of waistline stretching each day will give a lissiteness that is well worth the effort. Hats and clothes are all important, yes. But don't ever let them make you entirely forget your waistline.

Women's Safer Hygiene

New—Discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND Registered Nurse

WOMEN by millions are discarding old-time "sanitary pads," unhygienic makeshift methods for a new way called Kotex.

It discards as easily as tissue. No laundry, no embarrassment. Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads, one now wears sheerest frocks and gowns with never a fear of embarrassment.

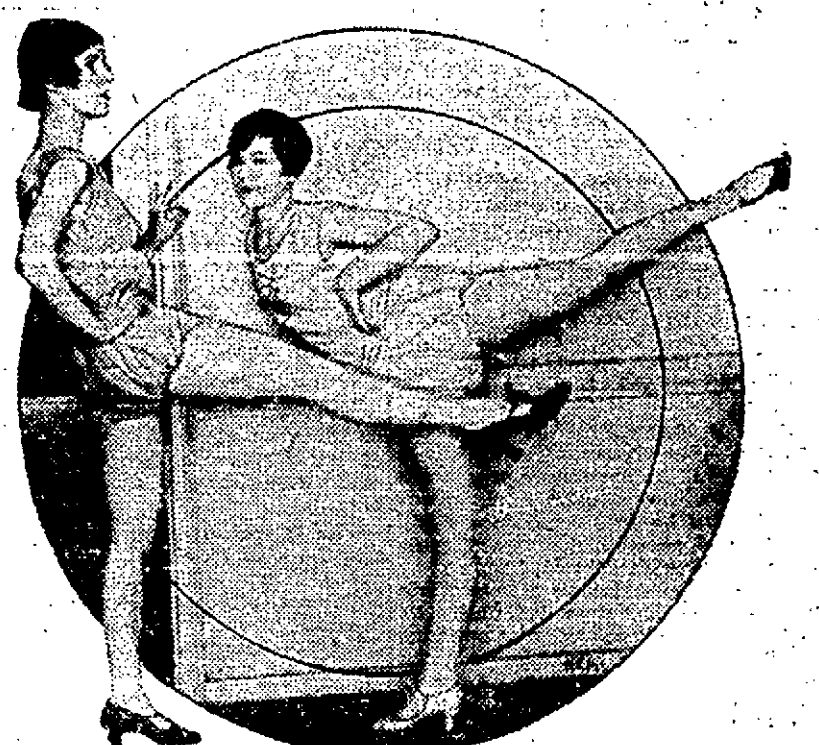

Another important factor, it deodorizes thoroughly, thus ending all danger of offending.

Doctors and nurses now widely urge it. 8 in every 10 better class women employ it.

Obtain at any store simply by saying "KOTEX." Box of 12 costs only a few cents. Be sure you get the genuine, for only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

Square Kerchief Will Be Rage For Summer Wear

Madison—(AP)—The colored handkerchief has only one excuse for being worn, and that is, to carry out a color note, according to Marion Jaure, style creator at the University of Wisconsin, in a series of articles on "The Well Dressed Woman."

"Handkerchiefs may be had in all colors," Miss Jaure continued. "There are some beautiful colored linen and silk ones but the trouble is they are used to promiscuously. They must carry out some color scheme, otherwise they lose their effectiveness. Many a dress has been made attractive by the use of a colored handkerchief so to belong to the suit, garment."

"The gingham bordered linen, brilliant foulards and pongee handkerchiefs see mit belong to the suit, shoes, hat and gloves of a business or sport outfit. The chiffon and lace handkerchiefs are best for afternoon and evening. It is quite evident the border prints for the spring handkerchief are to be most popular."

"A gardenia in the buttonhole of a dark tailored suit, a pink rose with closely tucked green leaves in the center of a fur coat or set on the shoulder of a French blue evening dress, all these lovely harmonies will bring joy to the wearer. One who is very youthful or has a fragile manner may wear bouillonettes of forget-me-nots and sweetheart roses. The over-plump woman must avoid showy flowers. She may wear a sprig of flowers on her fur collar but never a corsage."

"For evening wear, the flower made of rhinestone to be worn on the shoulder is considered very good. Also the flower made of the material of the dress or leather worn on the shoulder is rather attractive for a simple or sport type."

"The soft light of cream colored collars are flattering and blend in very well ordinarily with one's complexion."

Only one president ever served in Congress after his administration. He was John Quincy Adams.

Chinese On Right Road, Clubs Told

A hopeful point of view toward the Chinese situation was expressed by Prof. E. L. Ford of Foochow, China, who talked at the group meeting of societies in the Appleton district of the Womens Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church at the Appleton church Tuesday. It will take many years for China to get her balance, Mr. Ford believed, but eventually the situation will be straightened out. He described the situations which led up to the present trouble and told of the two wings, the radical and conservative, of the Chinese national party. An open forum followed his talk.

How To Play Bridge

(Readers of The Post-Crescent are invited to send their bridge problems to the Bridge Editor of The Post-Crescent and they will be forwarded to Mr. Work, author of these bridge articles. Mr. Work will answer every letter.)

The pointer for today is: With eight cards of a suit headed by Ace-King-Jack in Declarer's two hands, the Jack finesse generally should be tried; with nine cards, try to drop the adverse Queen.

Yesterday we left a Declarer in the midst of a difficult problem, namely: determining how he would be most apt to go game after the adversaries had established a suit, with which they will save game if they obtain the lead in time to do so. The complete hands follow:

North S. 9-6-4-2 H. 8-5-3 D. K-7-6-2 C. Q-3

West K. K-10 H. 10-6-4 D. Q-10-8 C. A-10-6-4-2

South S. A-Q-Q H. A-Q-Q D. A-7-4-3 C. J-9-3

CALLAHAN SUPPORTS BILL TO INCREASE STATE SCHOOL AND

Assembly Measure Would Equalize Taxation for Support of Education

Madison—(P)—Equalization of the taxes apportioned to the grade schools of the state was discussed at length before the joint committee on education of the legislature Wednesday. John C. Callahan, state superintendent of public instruction explaining to the committee the assembly bill, making great changes in the method of collecting and dealing out school funds.

Under the constitution, Mr. Callahan said, the schools are supported from moneys accruing out of the public lands, fines, and a seven-tenths mill tax. This tax which last year amounted to $2,716,587 constituted a large portion of the whole fund available for state grade school moneys. The whole fund, after deducting the expenses of various kinds amounted to $2,721,788.

9 PER CENT STATE AID
The present law provides apportionment to the counties of $4.25 per capita of their school population, he continued. Thus the state is contributing only about 9 per cent of the grade school education cost, the remainder of the support being gathered through local taxation.

Under the proposed law, the state would pay to the counties $250 for each elementary school teacher. This would be added a county fund of the same amount, so that the total grade school funds would be $500 multiplied by the number of elementary teachers in the state.

The state's share of this $500 per teacher allotment would be raised by substituting for the present seven-tenths mill tax a tax of one and one-half mills, based on state valuations.

"The law then sets about equalizing the distribution of this fund," Mr. Callahan said, "so that lack of revenue-bearing sources in a locality would not mean lack of educational facilities for the young people of that section."

He then gave the joint committee the provisions of the bill, proposing to equalize the support by the following distribution of the tax funds:

After the tax commission was found the valuation of property in the school district or city, its valuation of the hundred fifty thousand dollars for each elementary school teacher employed by the district shall be considered a "base" for determining the state aid."

The full tax valuation is divided by the number of teachers in the district where the result of this division is less than the "base" ($250,000 times number of teachers) are to receive apportionments. The result of the division, multiplied by the base and the amount so obtained, multiplied by the local school tax rate, multiplies the number of elementary school teachers equals the number of dollars to be apportioned from the school fund to the district.

"But in no event," the bill says, "shall the apportionment be for each such teacher employed. If the aggregate amount thereof exceeds the remaining funds in the public school fund income the several amounts shall be pro rated so as to reduce the aggregate to the available remaining moneys in said fund. Any excess remaining in the public school fund income on the thirtieth of November of each year shall revert to the public school fund."

FORD'S EDITOR

cus, while, in striking contrast to this miniature edition of humankind, is Blanche Payson, a woman nearly six feet tall and of Amazonian appearance and proportions, who appears as his wife in this picture.

Edith Yorke, who plays Miss Chadwick's mother, is just what she appears on the screen—a motherly gentlewoman. James Marcus, cast as Miss Yorke's husband, fulfills in appearance the demands of his characterization in "The Bachelor's Baby"—that of Col. Carter, sheriff of Amarillo County, Texas. He is a man just past middle age who has mastered the art of being kind and looking gruff at the same time.

The other two players who conclude this varied collection are Marie Perceval as the spinster whose only comfort and companion is her pet parrot, and Pat Harmon, cast as a motorcycle cop with a typical "son-of-Erin" face.

Frank Strayer directed this aggregation of players in Columbia's "The Bachelor's Baby" from the story "Too Many Keys," by Garre Elden Fort.

SPECIAL STAGE SHOW COMING

APRIL 7TH

An hilarious comedy "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" has proved to be, and it has delighted audiences wherever it has been seen and all the way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. It is an Edgar Selwyn production and will be presented in this city by a replica of the company so far as human ingenuity can make it so, of the organization that is now appearing in New York in the same play and drawing capacity audiences. The local engagement is announced for Thursday April 7 at Fischers Appleton Theatre.

The present company was organized expressly to appear in San Francisco and Los Angeles and the critics of those cities have said that no better comedy company ever came from New York to the Pacific coast. It is understood that Edgar Selwyn will send this company to both Boston and Philadelphia later in the season.

EVERY-DAY LIFE SEEN

"THE FAMILY UPSTAIRS"

The story of "The Family Upstairs," at the New Bijou today and Thursday, is a faithful transcript of the daily life of any American family in moderate circumstances, according to J. G. Blystone, who directed Fox Films version of Harry Delf's intensely human comedy.

The action takes place in New York City in the flat of an average American family and pictures in humorous vein the life of a typical home of people in moderate circumstances. There are some fine touches of pathos in which the former bad man of the screen is seen at his best while Virginia Valli as the dainty but misunderstood daughter gives

WEATHER CONDITIONS

A low pressure area moving eastward across the Canadian Provinces, with a trough southward over the upper Mississippi valley and lake region, has been attended by rains or snows as it passes eastward. It is followed by somewhat higher pressure, with mostly fair weather over the northern plains and eastward to the upper lakes this morning. This "high" is expected to cause generally fair weather, with moderate temperature, in this section tonight and Thursday. The pressure is still low, however, in the far west.

a fine interpretation of a very exacting role.

Allan Simpson is the young bank clerk, J. Farrell MacDonald is cast as the hard-working but under-paid car inspector. Julian Elliott is the fussy but well-meaning Mother Heller. The cast includes Cedric Evans, Jacqueline Wells, Edward Piel, Jr., and many others. The screen version is by L. G. Rigby.

Sales Of Gabriel Snubbers Increases

Shipments of Gabriel Snubbers from the factory at Cleveland so far this year indicate that the total for the first quarter will be more than 25,000 sets ahead of the corresponding period in 1926.

According to Mr. Milhaupt, local Gabriel distributor, production is now between 12,000 and 13,000 sets per day, and present demands forecast the necessity of increasing this almost immediately.

Since the announcement of the New Gabriel Snubber in early January, the interest of the motoring public in the new device has been rapidly increasing. The resulting demand has exceeded all expectations, and has been further increased by the requirements of forty American and European car manufacturers, who use Gabriels as standard equipment.

In principle, the New Snubber is identical with previous Gabriel models. The simplicity and superiority of multiple snubbing coils has been retained to the fullest degree, but the development of the anti-pre-loading brake has resulted in completely stopping the annoying "jerk" set up by pre-loading springs, when the car is traveling on smooth pavement. The New Gabriels accomplish this by keeping the car springs free of restraint over a small range of movement when their cushioning effect is fully capable of absorbing the vibration of small road inequalities.

ASSEMBLY VOTES FUND FOR LIBRARY SUPPORT

Madison—(P)—In a quiet session Wednesday the assembly voted concurrence in the senate bill appropriating a total of $35,000 for this and next year for the state library.

The report of the committee appointed to meet with the Iowa legislature's interstate bridge committee, showed:

Recommendation that the two states establish funds for erection and maintenance of bridges between Iowa and Wisconsin.

Recommendations that these funds be administered by the highway commissions of the two states.

That the Iowa delegation was returning to Des Moines to set the proposal before the legislature immediately.

After ordering ten bills engrossed the assembly killed two measures.

One, by Assemblyman Spott, changing the required circulations and increasing the compensations allowed newspapers publishing session law supplements.

The other, by Assemblyman Vin-

SENATORS DEBATE PROPER WAY TO SHIP CALVES

Madison—(P)—Senator Sauthoff's bill relating to the care of calves during shipment, introduced by request, caused a heated discussion among the farming element in the senate Tuesday.

The bill, which would insist upon shippers cooperating with the farmers in providing sufficient bedding and separate stall for calves, separating them from the older cows, was indefinitely postponed but not until the several farmer members had had their say as to the correct way to ship farm stock. The senate was held almost an hour until a vote was taken killing the measure.

Another bill introduced by Senator Sauthoff which was indefinitely postponed, would have allowed business firms and individuals to take out "guarantee insurance" on their sales and transfers, rentals, etc., with insurance companies legalized in this state, as an inducement to trade.

An Appleton team finally battled its way up among the leaders in the first annual bowling tournament of the Wisconsin department of the American Legion Tuesday evening at the Elk alleys. The local pinmen, the American Legion, No. 3 team, shot into second place with mark of 2733, topped the Ripon Legion five which had left since the tourney opened on Sunday. Hutter Builders of Fond du Lac took the lead Sunday with a 2429 mark.

The only other regular squad on the drives, the Hortonville post, No. 4, shot 1659, and four local booster squads failed to enter the Booster leaders, the high score being at 2454 by the Third Ward Specials. The second-place team is composed of Horn, Smith, Hutter, Brown and Habel. Horn collected a 240 game and 623 series, Smith had a 202 game, and Brown a 215.

Wednesday and Thursday evenings Appleton pin smackers will attempt to place among the leaders in the singles and doubles and Friday Oshkosh and Appleton regulars and Appleton Boosters take the drives.

STECHER EARNS ABOUT $275,000 EACH YEAR

Philadelphia—They don't get many big purses, but they get so many! Therein lies the reason why wrestling is as remunerative to those engaged in that sport as any other sport is to its athletes.

Take Joe Stecher for instance. He seldom gets $25,000 for a match, but he draws down $7,000 two or three times a week, year in and year out. Being world's champion and all that, he cashes in around $275,000 a year on his title.

Annual earnings of $50,000 to $100,000 are not unusual for matmen. Dick Daviscourt, Jim London, Ed "Starnegler" Lewis and several others pay income taxes on that amount each year. Yep, it looks as if those pachyderms know something about high finance!

Peoria, Ill. — Carl Augustine, St. Paul, and Billy Freas, Grand Rapids, drew (10).

Walter Johnson Regrets Inability To Hurl Opener

BY BRIAN BELL

Tampa, Fla.—(P)—There was a world of regret in Walter Johnson's voice when he said, "I guess I won't be able to pitch the opening game this year."

The big Washington pitcher, on the club for 20 years and one of the great figures of the game, was struck on the left leg by a batted ball in practice and suffered a broken bone above the ankle.

He looked ruefully at a plaster cast in which his leg was encased as he said: "I have pitched the first game of the season for Washington 15 or 16 times, but it seems too much to hope that I will be ready to start the ball rolling this year."

"The doctors say the cast will have to stay on there for three weeks and I suppose that will not leave me enough time to get in shape before the start."

"I was counting a great deal on getting away good, too, this year. My arm felt good and I was counting on a good season. I still am, for that matter, but a good start would have helped a lot."

Although Johnson is starting his

Dave's Dots And Dashes

Godhardt, Menasha's flashy forward, was named forward on the third all-state team chosen by sport scribes of LaCrosse, Madison, Wausau, Stevens Point and a Milwaukee newspaper after the state classic, though his team lost two of four games, including the opener, and failed to do more than enter in the play until Saturday. On the first team were Engbreton, Eau Claire, and Peters, LaCrosse, on the second Beaupre, Kenosha, and Boyle, Eau Claire, and with Godhardt, Graebner, Wausau, Klutz, Menasha center, Ebert, diminutive Waupun forward, and Loefer, Laona, received honorable mention.

Mauser of Wausau, a first team choice and Graebner and Luebschow, second-team choices, all return at the northern city next year with a fourth regular of this year. Three have been two years at the state meet. Wausau will be mighty hard to beat at Madison next year with fourth this year. A Wausau sport scribe says the following:

"It was stated several times by officials at the state caging meet that there seems to be more good teams in the Wisconsin river valley district than in any of the other in the state. Mr. Nevevan was informed by Gage and Holmes officials at the All-state tournament, that the Antigo, Rhineland and Tomahawk teams were pretty much on a par with the other caging outfits at the classic."

We take exception to the statement, which looks like an attempt to run down Fox river valley caging because the conference teams have refused to enter the state meet and fail to take the Valley into consideration at all, whereas a Valley team at Madison this year would have finished first or second.

Records show that in the last 11 years, up to last spring, a Valley squad has finished 1-2-3 in the state meet. Last year Manitowoc took fourth, losing the final game to Eau Claire, beaten earlier in the meet by Appleton. In five of the 11 years he won first, Fondy counting three times, Appleton once and Oshkosh once. Oshkosh also has counted a second as has Neenah, and Appleton, and Neenah have played in the semis. Valley squads always have been considered dangerous contenders at Madison. Yet the Wisconsin Valley has the state's best squad.

A meeting of the Wisconsin Elks Bowling association executives is scheduled for Oshkosh on Sunday. The committee will check up on facts and figures on the tourney which recently closed in the Stewards City and the prize list awards will be approved. Checks to the winners will be mailed out soon afterwards.

The C. C. C. girls of Green Bay tightened their claim on the state basketball championship by defeating the Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. to the tune of 59 to 24. The Cream City young ladies were outclassed all the way. The Bay girls are now attempting to book a game with a crack team from Madison.

For the first in a number of years, the state championship team in the Badger state is competing in the U. of C. national tournament. Eau Claire, winners of the caging fest in Madison, accepted the invitation to shoot in the Maroons meet and they played their first round game at noon Wednesday.

CLEVELAND CAPTAIN MUST BATTLE JINXES

Lakeland, Fla.—George Burns, captain of the Cleveland Indians is working harder than ever to get in his best condition for a hard campaign. He has a greater responsibility than he has ever had before as he was awarded the prize as the most valuable player in the American league last year and in times past this award has been a jinx.

Several stars after being dubbed the most valuable player proved "bust" the next year. Burns is taking no chances and is already practically in shape.

CARRIGAN THINKS TEAM CAN FINISH HIGHER IN CHASE

New Boston Sox Manager Expects to Keep Squad from Usual Cellar

BY BILLY EVANS

New Orleans Boston, first in batted balls and last in the American League.

For some years that famous New England city has been noted for those two things.

Once, Boston was as proud of its brand of baseball as baked beans, but those days are no more.

Manager Bill Carrigan intends to show the baseball public in general and Boston in particular that the Red Sox are in the American League for other purposes than to merely complete the circuit and play out the schedule as a matter of formality.

Once upon a time, many, many years ago, Bill Carrigan won two successive pennants and world championships for Boston. While he is looking forward to no such a happening, still he believes he will show the Boston public a much improved ball club when the season opens.

The personnel of the Boston club of this year is much the same that finished in last place in 1926. It may finish there this season.

However, Carrigan is of the opinion that it is at least 15, possibly 20, games better than it proved last season. Then it won only 46 ball games and finished but one point better than .300 in the standing.

As I watched the Boston club in action for a couple of days I noted perhaps a half dozen reasons why it should be a considerably improved club. No doubt a lot of fans who saw Boston perform last year will say "that doesn't mean a thing."

I am sure that Bill Carrigan, always a master handler of pitchers, a great catcher in his day, will, by devoting ways and means, improve that feature of play.

"After closely observing their stuff and actually catching them, I am sure that Carrigan, Ruffing and Witte should win more than 23 games between them," says Bill.

"Every American League player I have talked with says, 'How I hate to bat against Carrigan, Ruffing and Witte.' I can appreciate why they feel that way. Yet he won only nine games last season."

"Ruffing has as good a fast ball as I ever caught and a pretty fair curve. He ought to win 15 ball games with most any kind of a club. Last season he turned in but six victories."

"Witte, a southpaw, pitching his first year in the league, came through with eight wins, which isn't bad. However, Witte has more stuff than several squipwaps who won twice that many games."

"I regard Carrigan, Ruffing and Witte as far better pitchers than the won and lost column shows. I am hopeful they will justify my opinion of them."

Better pitching is one reason why I look for the Red Sox to be a more interesting ball club.

A much improved second line of defense is another potent factor. The Sox have capable substitutes for every position. The catching is sure to be decidedly better. One who knows the value of catching can appreciate this.

To briefly show what I mean by better reserve strength: should anything go wrong with Phil Todd, at first, Jack Rotrock can fill in most capable. Wanninger is a capable understudy for Ruffing at short, while Rogell can step in at second and take Regan's place in a pinch. Rollings is a mighty likely looking chap from Mobile, is battling with Fred Haines for third.

With two ball hawks like Jacobson and Flagstead in the outfield, there need be no worry on that score.

Boston isn't going to win any pennants nor trouble the first division, it may even finish last again, but, like Carrigan, I think it will win 20 more ball games than last year.

BLUE MATMEN LOSE MATCH TO BAY CREW

Lawrence Grapplers Able to Take Only 2 of 6 Bouts at Green Bay

Coach Don Gebhardt's Lawrence college grapplers lost their second match of the season to the experienced Green Bay Y. M. C. A. squad Tuesday evening at Green Bay. The Blue grapplers who lost here last week, 4 matches to 2, lost again at the Bay by the same margin. The Baymen are coached by Carl Zell, former Wisconsin state heavyweight champion.

As was the case last week Purvis and Barrell won for the Blues, but two other Lawrence men showed improvement over last week and lost out in the final minutes after hard battles with more experienced foes. Purvis won a decision over Hasselboro in the 145-pound class in 10 minutes and Barrell downed Allard with a headlock in 9 minutes, 20 seconds.

Dreher lost to Geese in 7:45 after holding the advantage until that time when a body scissors gave the Bayman the 155-pound match. He won with a scissors and half-nelson. Krohn who lost to Detacker of the Bay last week on a scissors, held his man to a decision victory in 10 minutes this time in the heavyweight class. In the other matches Lawrence threw Kneip of the Blues in the 122-pound class in 2:35 with a half-nelson and crotch hold, and Nobles lost to Gillespie of Green Bay in the 175-pound class in 3:20 with a wristlock and half-nelson.

Atlanta, Ga.—Tiger Flowers knocked out "Soldier" George Jones, New York (1).

New York — Ruby Golstein, New York, knocked out Pete Petrolle, Fargo, N. D. (1).

WOMENS CLUB CAGERS MEET MANITOWOC

Appleton Women's club basketball team will close its season at 8:15 Thursday evening at Lawrence college gymnasium with the crack Manitowoc girls team as the foe. The teams tied, 26-26, at Manitowoc earlier in the season, but since then Appleton has shown great improvement by beating Neenah twice. Before the Manitowoc-Appleton game, Neenah had beaten Appleton. The local girls expect to whip the Ship city cagers. Dorothy Mathis of the physical education department of Neenah high school, will referee the game.

Members of the Appleton team are Green and Meyer, forwards; Steinke and Schneider, guards; Landers and Tillman, side centers; Hitchler, jumping center. Miss Agnes Vanneman, physical director of the club, is the coach.

French Net Invaders No Better Than U.S. Youth

BY JIMMY POWERS

New York—Has American amateur tennis gone haywire? "Don't be hysterical"—that is the crushing rejoinder of William Tatum Tilden II and Vincent Richards.

"Afraid of the French drive? It is to laugh. Look at the fine crop of young Americans most every expert is overlooking in crying the requiem."

Look at Bobby Seller, Johnny Doeg, Berkeley Bell, Warren Coen, Jr., Julius Seligson, Sandy Weiner, Sidney Wood, Jr., Frankie Shields and a host of other aces," query the two.

"Why some of those boys could beat our ranking players of 15 years ago. Tennis supremacy most assuredly looks safe with the United States as long as sharks like them are alive."

Well, according to Tilden, is fast, angry, and has a powerful forehead drive.

The middle west sponsors the aspirations of Warren F. Coen, Jr., 16-year-old luminary who hails from Kansas City. Then there is George Lott of Chicago, Johnny Hennessy of Indianapolis and Wray Brown of St. Louis. The east has great faith in Julius Seligson, Sandy Weiner and Frankie Shields.

The California delegation is headed by Bobby Seller, Johnny Doeg, Jr., and Sidney Wood.

Young Doeg has an interesting history. He is the son of two fine tennis players, Violet Sutton and John Doeg, now professionals. While May Sutton, now Mrs. Tom Bundy, has tried hard to develop a real tennis player among her six children, she has had little success, but her sister Violet has a potential champion, according to Vinnie Richards, in son Johnny.

Young Doeg is a lefthander with a splendid physique—a barrel chest and a chubby, smiling face. He has a powerful service and is only 18. He lives at Santa Monica, Calif., the town made famous by Mary K. Browne.

Young Wood is a nephew of Julian S. Myrick, who is high in national tennis councils, and Watson M. Washburn former internationalist. Sidney is only 15 years old but handles himself like a veteran.

With this fine array of youngsters developing, as Tilden and Richards both so forcibly point out, why worry about the tennis future?

The major league record is 182 held by Washington.

Deviveros who played shortstop for Beaumont, will be used as understudy to Tavernier, regular Tiger shortstop, according to Manager Moriarty's present plans.

Cleveland Indian war path extended to Montgomery, Ala., Wednesday for a game with the Cotton States league club at the capital.

The St. Louis Browns jumped to New Orleans Wednesday from Mobile where they defeated the Mobile Bears, 3 to 1 Tuesday. Tris Speaker has recovered from his strained ankle and once again is back in the Washington lineup. His timely hitting Tuesday aided materially in the 3 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

JOEY HARRIS LOVES TO SOCK AT CURVE BALLS

St. Petersburg, Fla.—A group of baseball players were discussing batters who would rather hit curve balls than fast balls, known in baseball parlance as "hard" ones. It was the consensus that curve ball pitchers of the American league lost an enemy when Joe Harris was transferred from Washington in the American to Pittsburgh in the National. "Harris can hit curve balls anytime, any place," said a pitcher in the crowd, and he will be right at home in the National league for there are more curve ball pitchers there than in the American.

Chicago—Jory Thomas, St. Paul, defeated Tiger Jack Burns (5).

IOWA HURDLE STAR TURNS IN SECOND FASTEST TIME MARK

Bab Cuhel on Collegiate Honor Roll for Speed Over Sticks

BY BILLY EVANS

Iowa City—The fastest college low hurdler in the country last spring is the title bestowed upon Frank J. (Bab) Cuhel, University of Iowa star, by officials of the National Collegiate A. A.

Cuhel has been placed on the collegiate honor roll, composed of athletes who turned in the best performances in track and field competition. He won the low hurdles at the Western Conference meet.

In the Illinois dual meet, Cuhel raced over the 220-yard low barriers in 23 2-10, the second best time ever recorded in the world. Charles R. Brookings, former Hawkeye captain who helped coach Cuhel, holds the best time of 23, the world's record.

Athletes who were rated behind Cuhel in the event are Grumbles, Southern California; Spence, City of Detroit; Locke, Nebraska; Guthrie, Ohio State; Taylor, Oklahoma and Wolf, Pennsylvania.

HOWIE BENTZ LOSES DECISION TO HUBERT

Milwaukee—(P)—Floyd Hubert of Cleveland, was given a shade over Howard Bentz, of Milwaukee, by newspapermen in their ten-round bout here Tuesday night.

Harry Kahn of Milwaukee, won over Tony Ross of Pittsburgh, the bout being stopped at the end of the seventh, when the referee decided Ross was unable to continue. They are lightweights.

Eddie Chandler, Moline, defeated "Red" Rodman, Fort Wayne (8).

JONES CAN OUTDRIVE ALL LIVING GOLFERS

Washington—Bobby Jones could outdrive any golfer, pro or amateur, if he wished.

That is the opinion of Roland MacKenzie, young amateur here, who is generally considered the longest driver among the amateurs.

MacKenzie doesn't consider himself a long distance hitter despite the fact that he has driven many shots for more than 300 yards.

"Bobby can outdrive me any time he wishes," says MacKenzie. That is, when he is trying to get distance. He has done it every time he tried."

HIGH SCHOOL OF 20 BOYS AFTER NATIONAL HONORS

Baton Rouge, La.—A high school of only 20 boy students produced the championship basketball team of Louisiana.

It is the second successive year and the third time in five years that the five of Oak Ridge High, a dinky school in the piney hills of this state, has won the state title.

The players, who average around 16 years in age, are now training for the national prep tournament in Chicago. Last year they took third place in the consolation night at Chicago. This year they hope to do better.

HOW EXPERTS JUDGE CIGARS

Men who know cigars judge quality on five points: (1) Barn; (2) Ams; (3) Flavor or taste; (4) Color; (5) Workmanship. Which do you count the most important?

In our own organization there is no complete agreement as to which feature is the main reason for the growing popularity of San Felice at 5c. Is it the blend or its mildness or other qualities? Try one and judge it point by point. What feature do you think is responsible for the amazing increase in demand for San Felice—a demand which has doubled and tripled? Perhaps it is the mild sexy cigar you are looking for. It costs only 5c to find out. So try a San Felice today—then you'll know.

BOWLING

HIGH SCHOOL SPORT

MEN FAVOR BASEBALL

Madison (AP)—The Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association in session here during the state basketball tournament has adopted a plan to foster another sport in Wisconsin, that of baseball.

The feeling that baseball, "The sport of America" should not die out among the youngsters was the thought which pervaded the meeting. Two one-day baseball carnivals will be staged, according to P. F. Neve, secretary of the W. I. A. A., who announced that Plattville and Cumberland would be the sites of these contests. Four high school teams will be invited to participate at each of the above named towns and will play elimination games until each meet has a titleholder.

This is to be but an entering wedge for baseball in Wisconsin high schools. Orton Keyes, athletic director at Plattville Normal will handle the diamond series at his school while R. M. Gager, Cumberland coach, will take charge of the other.

The board of control of the W. I. A. A., voted $1,000 to pay the fares of visiting teams to the state high school track meet here May 21. They also divided the classes of competition into three groups, Class A, for school with an enrollment of over 700 pupils, Class B, to include schools with from 140 to 700 students, and class C for schools having less than 140 students.

FOUR YEAR OLD GIRL

IS CONCERT PIANIST

Greenville, S. C. (AP)—Miss Rebecca Reid is only four years old and has never had a music lesson, but nevertheless has made her debut as a concert pianist.

When two and a half years old she exhibited interest in the piano and at three was playing nursery tunes and hymns heard at Sunday school. Now, at four, Rebecca plays with the ease and skill of a child far beyond her years.

Her debut was before the Crescent Music Club and was followed by another appearance the same afternoon at the Greenville chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She has worked out her music by herself. Rebecca cannot read music, her sense of tone and rhythm being a guide.

THE WAY OF A MAID WITH A MAN

HARRY MYERS AND HELEN CHADWICK PLAY THE LEADING ROLES IN "THE BACHELOR'S BABY" WHICH WILL BE SHOWN WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY AT FISCHER'S APPLETON THEATRE.

Costly Furnishings Will Be Shown In Modern Home

A residence such as would delight the hearts of the most exacting home owners will be exhibited here next week at the Pure Food and Better Homes show to be conducted at the armory on Wednesday, Thursday Friday, and Saturday, April 6, 7, 8, and 9, under auspices of the Appleton Post-Crescent.

The model home, which promises to be one of the outstanding features of the show, will be equipped with furnishings valued at hundreds of dollars. Not only will the most up-to-date furnishings be shown, but it will be arranged exactly as modern tastes dictate. An attraction for the home owner as well as the prospective home builder, it is pointed out, as both can secure valuable suggestions.

Everything in the home, with one exception, will be furnished by the Bretschneider Furniture Co. The exception is a Kelvinator electric refrigerator, which will be installed by the Wisconsin Traction, Light, Heat and Power Co.

Karpen's furniture will adorn the living room, while the bedroom set will be of the Berkeley and Gey make. Luxurious drapes will be hung throughout the building. Arrangements have been completed with the manufacturer for an especially fine exhibit of rugs. Of especial interest to the housewife will be the Hoosier Kitchen cabinet in the kitchen. Beautiful lamps, artistically arranged, will shed soft glows throughout the home. A dainty breakfast nook will complete the exhibit of the interior.

Modern dishes and modern methods of preparing food likewise will be exhibited, under the direction of Mrs. Mamie Wendle, noted home economics expert.

Other interesting features will include the $12,000 exhibit of the Holston Band Instrument Co. of Elkhorn, Wis., and the electrical display. The various uses which electricity can be put to will be demonstrated, especially those uses designed chiefly for the facilitation of labor on the farm.

Loud speakers, installed throughout the armory, will make the voices of all speakers audible everywhere.

FRANK COOK BUYS

THEATRE IN SHEBOYGAN

Frank Cook, owner of the Ribou theatre, has purchased the Gem theatre at Sheboygan from Ernest Hofer. The theatre was closed until April 2 to permit a complete renovation and installation of a new organ and ventilating system. The latter will supply 40,000 cubic feet of fresh air every minute. A new lighting system will be

REWARD IS OFFERED FOR MEXICAN'S ARREST

A reward of $700 for information leading to the arrest of Bernardo Roa, Mexican convict recently escaped from Stateville Prison, Joliet, Ill., with several other prisoners, is offered, according to information received by the police and sheriff's departments. The sheriff of Wilcox, Ill., has posted $500 of the reward, and the chief of police of Chicago will add another $200. It was during the escape of Roa and his companions that Deputy Warden Klein was killed.

Later, during a running gun battle in Chicago at the corner of 38th-st and Ewing-st, Roa and a companion shot and killed Police Officer Len Grant and wounded another officer. Roa is a desperate criminal, and will not hesitate to shoot if cornered, it is pointed out.

He is 27 years old, 5 feet 9 1/2 inches tall, and from 160 to 170 pounds in weight, of medium build; he has hazel green slate eyes, dark chestnut hair, a small mole one-half inch in front of the lobe of the left ear. The right side of his head is a trifle longer than the left side, his lips are full and protruding, and he has a receding lower jaw. There is a cluster of small scars on the back of his head and a shotgun scar below the knee on the left leg, and is slightly lame. A shotgun scar also is noticeable on the elbow of his right arm.

Installed and extensive improvements will be made in the projection booth.

For the past four years Mr. Cook operated the Ribou theatre here, but the Saxe Amusement Enterprises have leased the property in which Mr. Cook's show house is located and expects to take possession about May 1. For this reason Mr. Cook went to Sheboygan and purchased the Gem theatre. He plans to move his family to Sheboygan in the near future.

Mr. Cook was with the Saxe company for 15 years and during that time he bought pictures for all their houses, did some of the advertising work and for two years managed the Saxe Strand theatre at Green Bay.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the many motorists of this community, we are proud to announce—we now sell Goodrich tires exclusively!

NOW we can fit tire prices to the miles you drive your car!

A new and better standard of sales... a new and finer standard of service...AWAIT YOU HERE!

WE'VE been in this tire business long enough to find out this important fact—

All kinds of people do not need one kind of tire.

With some—first cost is most important. Others want long run economy. We can satisfy both.

They all want the most for their money—and we give them just that by our new plan. Now—we combine our local experience with the experience of one of the biggest manufacturers in the tire industry—and give you—

TIRES—and Prices to fit every need!

Come in and see how our plan works. Do you drive four thousand miles a year—or forty thousand? We have the tire to fit your needs! Honest values—all up and down the price scale! That's our platform. Come in and name your price—see us produce the tire from our racks that matches it.

Goodrich Silvertowns

Here's the tire for motorists who get the most out of their cars—in hard service—in speed—as well as smart appearance on the boulevards. We know tires from "the inside out"—all kinds go through our repair department—and we pick Silvertowns from the lot as our leader—a leader among tires worthy of leaders among car owners. Balanced comfort in Silvertown Balloons does not cost you a single mile of distance—and every Silvertown gives you long run economy.

Why Pay More for Your Tires?

60 miles plus—
with exceptional ease
5 to 25 miles in
7 1/4 seconds
22 miles per gallon
7-bearing crankshaft

To literally scores of thousands, Chrysler "60" is proving that its public preference is based upon the soundest of buying reasons—unmistakable money-value.

There's more than a thrill in the "60's" pick-up and in its speed ability of sixty miles and more an hour with exceptional ease. There's speed without the least effort, combined with most unusual riding comfort and handling facility.

Mechanically, the "60" has many of the very same features to be found in the Chrysler "70" or Imperial "80", seven-bearing crankshaft, invar-strut pistons, impulse neutralizer, manifold heat control, air cleaner, oil filter, full pressure lubrication, hydraulic four-wheel brakes and shock absorbers.

Come, see the Chrysler "60"—and note the essential fineness of its Standardized Quality manufacture. You'll recognize, especially after driving it, there isn't another six of its price that even begins to compare with it in quality and value.

Chrysler "60" prices —
Touring Car, $1075; Club Coupe, $1125; Coach $1145; Roadster, (with rumble seat), $1175; Coupe, (with rumble seat), $1245; Sedan, $1245.

CRISS-CROSS
(Being a Modern Misuse)
By Tommy Louisa Long
Two kinds of girls the fellows like—the one Is she who's quiet, gentle, and a cook; And that's the kind a fellow always picks When for a little wife he starts to look.

The other is the kind that's full of pep— The kind that no one ever challenged yet; They chase around with her, and spend the dough, And wouldn't marry her to win a bet.

Well, me, I'm young I want to have my fun, And so I played around and necked—oh, sure!— Figuring that when the time arrived I'd move Into another town, and act demure.

It didn't work the way I thought it would. Things NEVER do turn out as you expect! I was a flirty, slapper baby vamp—and married the first fellow that I necked!!!

EDUCATOR TALKS ON STATE SCHOOL NEEDS

Assistant Badger School Superintendent Addresses Rotary Club

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—H. O. Penske of Madison, assistant state superintendent of education, spoke at the regular meeting of the Rotary club Monday noon. The subject of his talk was "Equalization of Educational Opportunities and Equalization of Taxes." The theme of his discussion was the plea that if education administration through the state were entirely in the hands of the state instead of small communities children in rural districts would have the same educational advantages that the city child is having. A unified course would be adopted, one that could be adjusted to the individual needs of the small as well as the large school districts.

The county school with its coal pile and wood pile outdoors and its out-buildings would give way under this new plan to buildings and accommodations which are now impossible to them. This plan of education would be developed in the immediate future, but it will take years of adjustment and changes. Upon its adoption, however, the smaller centers would receive aid which they do not get now, the speaker said.

COMMUNITY HOSPITAL MAY BUY REFRIGERATOR

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The community hospital auxiliary met in regular session at Liberty hall Monday evening. The purchase of an electric refrigerator for the hospital was discussed and it was decided to work toward the purchase of one.

Guy Blonday of the New London Floral Co., has offered the lot of the north section of his land just south of the "Turkish" house for a hospital building whenever it is wanted for that purpose. With the constantly increasing demand for accommodation in the present building, the need of a larger building seems but a matter of a few years.

The auxiliary will sponsor a home talent play entitled "The Womans' Wedding." The plan of the play is unusual in every way. Girls, flower girls, bridesmaids, train bearer and full wedding party will consist of men only, the cast including over fifty. May 5 and 6 have been set as dates for the presentation.

NEW LONDON SOCIETY

Am at Sea by Carolyn Wells

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE. Death strikes GABRIEL FOLSON while bathing at Ocean Town, N. J. It is thought at first he is a stroke victim, but investigation shows he has been stabbed to death beneath the water.

Folsom's swimming companions had been ROGER NEVILLE, a business partner; MRS. HELEN BARNABY and CARMELITA VALDON. It is established that Folsom, just before his death, had been standing next to NED BARRON, known as the copper king.

ANASTASIA FOLSON, eccentric and masterful sister of the dead man, arrives and takes command. At the inquest it is learned that the death weapon was a pickaxe, an Oriental knife, and it has been bought on the boardwalk.

It is also established that one CROYDON SEARS, who was in Barron's party, is a fancier of curious knives. Anastasia engages TITUS RIGGS, an architect, to work on the case. DAN PELTON, the dead man's nephew, and his intrigue in Folsom's room.

He believes his uncle had been blackmailing several people and he and Riggs discovered suspicious documents in Folsom's effects, bearing the initials of Croydon Sears.

Carmelita Valdon admits that she is anxious to recover some letters that were in Folsom's possession. A remark from Riggs nettles her and she leaves.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXI

Carmelita evinced no anger, made no quick or peevish motion, but as she went off the Duchess observed: "She's mad clear through. See it sticking out of her back."

"She'll get over it," said Neville, carelessly. "Now, Riggs, caids on the table. Want the Duchess to stay?"

"As she wishes," said Riggs. "I'll go then," and Mrs. Barnaby rose, with an air of relief. "And you wanted me to stay? I should have stayed, and I know I'd be bored to death."

With her wide, seemingly rapid, but really wise smile, she followed the direction Carmelita had taken. "Great little old woman," and Neville looked at Riggs.

"Does she know anything?"

"Everything," said Riggs. "I don't mean generally speaking. I mean about the Folsom murder."

"Good Lord, no. How should she?" "I don't know how she should, but that doesn't argue that she doesn't."

"She may for all I can say—I've really not talked to her about it."

Tite Riggs watched his man, for in a sense Neville was his man, for the moment. Riggs didn't actually suspect him, but a number of vague vapors had begun to crystallize suddenly and all at once, and Tite wanted to be sure.

"Have you talked much about it, Neville?" he said. "I mean, have you heard or gathered anything that would help me in my search? For you must be interested in getting at the truth."

"I daresay I ought to be," the other cut in. "But I'm not. I don't look at these things as some people do. I'd rather let poor old Garry lie. To dig into that man's past would not only mean a lot of reproach to his memory, but trouble and annoyance for other people who, whatever they may be, are innocent of any complicity in his death."

"Complicity? How can you think more than one person acted? Even the coroner's jury said at the hand of a person unknown," omitting the alternative plural.

"I used the word carelessly, but even so there may have been complicity of intent with an individual action. I don't suggest this at all; I'm only defending my English."

He smiled. Neville was a man of charm, and the more Riggs looked at him the more he felt certain that the charm was of a sort that could expand into tact, even policy, even deception.

"Well," he said, after a moment's pause, "I believe 'cards on the table' was your phrase. Spread your hand."

"Why, my dear fellow, I meant your cards. I haven't any. I'm not in this, as I told you. What I meant was spread your cards, so I may know what you're after from me."

"I've practically asked you all I am trying to learn from you; that's as to Garrett Folsom's sidelines. Straight goods, now, do you know of his being conversant with details of other people's lives, that said people would give almost anything not to have known?"

"Yes," said Riggs. "And did give almost anything?"

"Yes," said Riggs. "And did give almost anything?"

"You know of others?"

"If I do, I don't propose to tell of it."

"Very well, and thank you for your frankness. This is not news to me, of course. But I will not ask you for any more than you want to tell."

"You've reached your limit, then?"

Tite Riggs smiled. He began to like the man, though against his better judgement.

"What became of that valet of Folsom's that Ross?" Neville asked.

Again Riggs smiled. He could so often read silent connective thought. "You mean he knew about his master's business?"

"Gee, Riggs, you're uncanny! That's early Doyle work."

"Only to a mild degree. Why the

Sure Way to Stop Night Coughing

A Treatment That Ends Night Coughs in 15 Minutes

Persistent night coughing is usually due to causes which cough syrups and patent medicines do not touch. A remarkable prescription known as Thoxine, working on an entirely different principle, goes direct to the cause, and is guaranteed to stop the stubbornest cough within 15 minutes. One swallow is all that's needed. If it fails, get your money back. No chloroform or other harmful drugs. Safe for children. Equally good for sore throat for which purpose it is far superior to gargles. 35c, 60c and $1.00. Sold by Volgt's and all good drug stores. adv.

WHEN EQUITY HAD ITS SPRING OPENING

About 1,000 people attended the spring opening of the Outagamie Equity Cooperative Exchange on Thursday, March 24. The sales started on March 23 and totaled $15,000.

Representatives of twenty wholesale houses were present, made speeches, helped otherwise in the entertainment and assisted the farmers in selecting suitable machinery.

Plans for extensive changes and general expansion of the local property of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad are being considered by the directors, according to W. B. Dasing, local agent. Announcement of the work to be done here during the coming season probably will be made within the next month, according to Mr. Dasing.

"Great old swimmer, you claps," he said, heartily. "Can you give me a bit of help in my work, Mr. Sears?"

"That young hopeful of yours has lain down on the job."

"Why—that is, I don't see how I can, Mr. Riggs. I know nothing about it, you see. I was 'way off! I didn't see the thing at all!"

"Yes, I know, but—I'm only checking up facts—who was the man in the green bathing suit who stood near you?"

"I haven't an idea, and—excuse me, sir—I shouldn't tell you if I had." And Croydon Rochester Sears.

Riggs can't put Sears out of his mind when he thinks of the murder. Why do so many people act suspiciously? Who killed Folsom, anyway?

with a slight, formal bow, turned and walked away to where the Barrons were standing.

Tite Riggs looked critically at Mr. Sears' back and said, "When?"

HERE IS CHANCE TO GET PHILIPPINE JOB

United States Civil Service Announces Competitive Examinations for Positions

Open competitive examinations for librarians, cotton technologists, radio inspectors, English teachers, medical officers and other positions have been announced by the United States civil service commission. Full information and application blanks may be obtained from J. J. Planch, secretary of the local board of civil service examiners at the Appleton postoffice.

Library positions for departmental service at Washington, D. C., were announced for junior librarian at $1,650 a year, library assistant at $1,650, junior library assistant at $1,500, and under library assistant. A cotton technologist in the bureau of agricultural economics of the department of agriculture will have duty in Washington, D. C., or in the field at $3,800 a year.

An assistant radio inspector in the department of commerce for duty in the field is required at $2,100 a year. Teachers of secondary English at 2,000 pesos to 2,200 pesos a year and normal school demonstration teachers at 3,000 pesos to 4,000 pesos a year in Philippine service are needed. The normal value of the Philippine peso equals 50 cents in United States currency.

A junior medical officer or interne for service in veterans bureau hospitals throughout the country will be given $1,560 to $2,500 a year allowance, or $1,260 to $1,860 a year with quarters, subsistence and laundry.

A map printer's helper in the geological survey at Washington, will receive $900 a year. A lithographic press feeder in the geological survey will have $1,140 a year.

The name for foot soldiers originated in Spain. The King, abducted by the Moors, was rescued by an army of foot-soldiers organized by the Infante. Thus the term "infantry."

GABRIEL SNUBBERS

Gabriel—and Only Gabriel—is a Snubber

The Car Dealer's Choice

When your car dealer recommends a set of New Gabriel Snubbers, he does so because he knows that, without them, balloon tires and soft springs cannot give you the utmost in riding comfort.

His test rides have proved to him that the New Gabriels—with exclusive anti-pre-loading brake—leave the car springs free to cushion small bumps, and that on rough roads, their snubbing action stops the pitch and gallop that causes discomfort and fatigue.

Play safe by following your dealer's suggestion—his chief concern is to see that you are satisfied with your car.

445 MILLIONS IN CHINA MATERIAL FOR NEW NATION

Nationalists Have Tremendous Opportunity to Rehabilitate Chinese People

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington—Now that the Chinese nationalists seem in a fair way to control all China, let's see what they will have to work with if they can organize the country's populous and far-flung provinces into a national unit.

The population of all the provinces and the dependencies of Sinkiang, Mongolia and Tibet, generally figured at a rough 300,000,000 or 400,000,000, is approximately 445,000,000, according to the Chinese post office estimate of 1922, the latest available figure.

The area in square miles is 4,382,000, as compared with a U. S. area of 2,970,000 square miles. In case anyone thinks we are beginning to become rather crowded in this country, with about 50 persons to the square mile, he might consider that the ratio for China proper is 23 per square mile and that the figure shoots up to 601 in the province of Chekiang.

These figures are excellent material for question and answer games, but they probably are more important as indications of the tremendous possibilities of China if someone can educate the people and awaken them to a national consciousness.

It may add to your picture of China to point out that Shanghai, now in the hands of the Cantonese nationalists, is about 330 miles from Peking, or as far as from New York to Indianapolis. Train time from Shanghai to Peking is 26 hours and although the nationalists aren't going to be able to make the distance in anything like that time because of the armies interposing, Peking is by no means outside their reach.

Recent fighting in China has been going on around the Yangtze river, ever an important factor in military strategy and operations. The Yang-tsi basin has an estimated population of 200,000,000.

According to Julien Arnold, the Department of Commerce attaché at Shanghai, who has compiled a comprehensive commercial and industrial handbook just brought out by the department, Chinese trade and industrial development along modern lines in the last 30 years has been remarkable.

China's total trade with the United States grew from $39,275,707 in 1904, and $53,274,496 in 1913 to $233,331,173 in 1925. Exports to China in 1925 were valued at $116,205,014, according to latest Department of Commerce figures, and imports from China at $143,146,165. Our percentage of her foreign trade has risen from 9 to 17. These figures do not include transshipments from Japan and Hongkong.

Arnold makes the following significant comment:

"In spite of disturbed political conditions in China, trade, modern construction work and modern industrial developments increase year by year; therefore tremendous strides should follow any marked improvement in the direction of political stability."

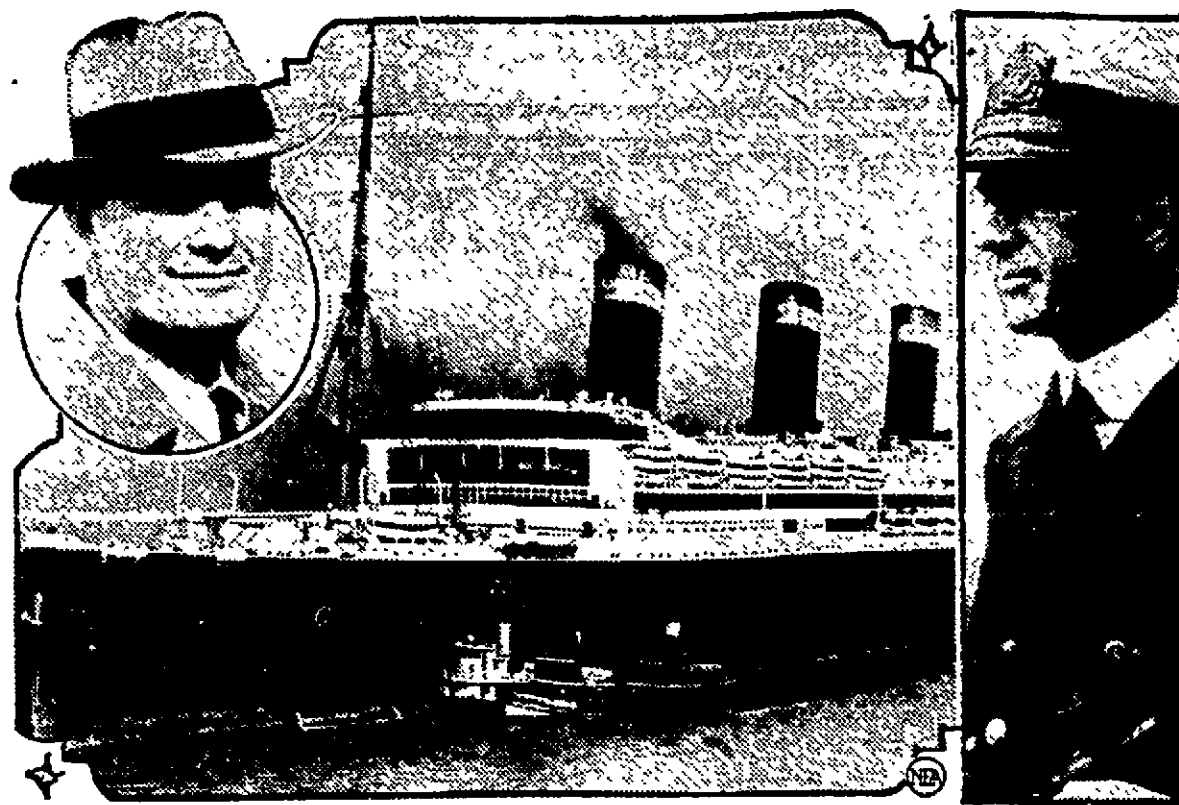

During the last ten years, more than 100 modern-type Chinese banks were opened in Shanghai, with an aggregate paid-up capital of more than $120,000,000. In the same period, agitation for good roads has resulted in construction of 8000 miles of graded dirt roads to serve motor traffic and a firm national government would be bound to make tremendous expansions in road programs.

Meanwhile, Chinese labor may be expected to benefit, for it apparently has legitimate ground for protest over the fact that living costs have risen 100 per cent while wages lagged behind with slightly more than a 50 per cent average increase.

Americans contribute about $12,500,000 a year to missionary and other philanthropic work in China.

The importance of Shanghai in the present or almost any other situation is to be observed in the fact that more than 40 per cent of China's trade enters or passes out through that city. Dairen, in Manchuria, comes next with only 11 per cent and Canton third with about 10 per cent. Thus with only Shanghai and Canton in their possession, the nationalists would control 50 per cent of China's exports and imports.

WHERE ALMY SAYS HE DRANK; AND NOW HE TELLS

When Frederick Almy, millionaire ex-cowpuncher (left, above), paid $655 at New York for failing to include in his customs declared two crates of liquor found outside his stateroom on the Leviathan, he said he "didn't see the need of all this fuss because liquor was found abroad; any one can buy a drink from stewards on the ship." Commodore Herbert Hartley, of the Leviathan (right) denied Almy's statement. With Almy to America came his bride, the former June Dibble, American Paris mannequin, whom he wed after the death of his first wife, the wealthy Lady Michelligan.

SOUTHEASTERN WISCONSIN ASKS FOR STATE PARK

Madison — (AP)—The Daggett "park bill," relating to the establishment of state parks and wild life refuges in southeastern Wisconsin will be brought up Wednesday before the senate committee on state and local government.

This bill introduced by the Milwaukee senator, by request, asks an annual appropriation of $250,000 for the purchase of land and the development of a state park or parks in the southeastern section of the state. The appropriation would be paid the state conservation commission annually for five years.

The establishment of a park system in this section is stressed in the bill in view of the lack of such grounds in a section of the state occupied by one-half of Wisconsin's population.

"There are yet available in southeastern Wisconsin," according to the Daggett bill, "large tracts of land which can be purchased for a comparatively small sum, and which are peculiarly suitable for state parks because of the presence of numerous small lakes.

"Alternate floods and extremely low water flowing in important streams in this section of the state present a serious problem, which can be solved only through the development of park and forest areas along these streams.

"There is a great public need for forest areas and wild life preserves near the center of population. Such parks, insofar as possible, would be located and developed so as to aid and supplement any plans which the counties in this section of the state may have for the development of a county system of parks."

VALLEY LUTHERANS PLAN BIG MEETING

Executive Committee Meets Here to Arrange for Gathering in Oshkosh

Four prominent church workers are being considered as speakers for the massmeeting of all people of the Lutheran churches in the Wisconsin district of the Ohio synod to be held at Oshkosh late in July or August. Plans for the meeting were started at a meeting of the executive committee of the Associated Luther leagues of Northern Wisconsin in Appleton recently. The Rev. F. C. Reuter represented the Rev. L. F. Gast of Green Bay, as clerical member of the committee, and Miss Elsie Mau attended as secretary of the group. The date has not been set as arrangements will be made for securing the use of the Oshkosh fair grounds for the meeting.

Two speakers will be included on the program, and substitutes will be named from the same group of four suggested: The Rev. Arthur Kuhlmann of Columbus, O., the Rev. Hugo Schmidt of Middletown, O., Prof. William Schmidt of St. Paul, and the Rev. Ernest Berger of Fort Wayne, Ind.

The First English Lutheran and Zion Lutheran churches of Appleton are in the Ohio synod of the Lutheran church.

The purpose of the massmeeting, it was announced following the Appleton meeting, is to promote cooperation and unified action among the Lutheran congregations of this district through the medium of a "set together" meeting.

JUNIORS GET PRACTICE AS HI-Y CLUB OFFICERS

Junior members of the HI-Y club were chosen to serve a 3-week term as officers on the club at the regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. The juniors were elected to hold the offices for the brief period so they will be acquainted with execu-

"KEEP OFF THE GRASS" IS ONE OF THE FIRST SIGNS OF SPRING.

The work for next fall when the officers now in charge, all seniors, will have graduated. The club is composed of members of the two upper classes of the senior high school.

Junior officers elected were Ted Bolton, president; Aloysius Gage, vice president; Carleton Roth, secretary; Ted Meyer, treasurer; Charles Peereboom, corresponding secretary; Franklin Werner, sergeant-at-arms. These boys will meet with the regular executive committee Sunday afternoon to plan for their 3-week tenure of office. Appointment of junior class chairman of committees will be made at that time. Senior officers will instruct and aid the juniors during the 3-week period.

Desmond Schade was admitted to the club at the business meeting and committee reports were read. Dr. Virgil B. Scott, pastor of Memorial Presbyterian church, who was to address the club, was unable to be present. He will speak at the regular meeting next Tuesday evening instead.

Fourth Lenten Meeting

The fourth of the series of lenten services will be held at Mt. Olive Lutheran church at 7:45 Wednesday evening. The topic will be Jesus Lead from Herod to Pilate.

COLLEGE CLUB ELECTS THREE APPLETON GIRLS

Two Appleton girls were elected officers of the Numeral club of Lawrence college, an organization recently founded to sponsor girls' athletics at the school. Miss Esther Ziegler was chosen president and Miss Mary Ellen Bond, secretary and treasurer. Miss Lois Manchester of Racine is vice-president of the club.

Requisites for membership are class numerals in the Womens Athletic association.

Lenten Service

Mid-week lenten services will be held at 7:30 Thursday night at Trinity Lutheran church. The Prodigal's Return, the fourth of the series of sermons on The Prodigal Son will be given. The senior choir will meet for rehearsal after the service.

Filipinos Are Far From Satisfied With U. S. Rule

(This is another article by the Rev. S. G. Ruegg, formerly of Menasha and Clintonville, who is traveling around the world. Another article will appear in the near future.)

BY DR. S. G. RUEGG
Manila—We are between the devil and the deep sea in the Philippine Islands. We have never agreed as to what the devil is but for practical purposes he represents superstition, ignorance, fear, uncleanness, lack of integrity, et cetera. The deep sea seems to be largely experience, lack of imagination and comprehension of the oriental with a lack of social and political engineers.

Many of the European nations accuse us of imperialism which they say began on the morning of May 1, 1898 when Admiral Dewey made short work of the Spanish navy and some of the hulks are still in Manila bay, symbols of departed misrule and corruption. We are accused of selfish motives with a train of other ill-motives like a typhoon than a teapot. We are told that we gobble things up here but the better informed are a little more lenient with us. It is a fact that a new era began for our land on that memorable morning. The constitution had been made and we are now in the process of our adjustment. We did become imperial at the close of the nineteenth century but in the better adjusted sense of the term. It is a fact that the Filipino people asked us for help. They appealed to us, dimly as that may appear to us, for guidance. When a people have reached a pitch of culture, self respect and sufficiency and are called upon to be benefactors and even to impose their culture on the petitioners then you have become imperialistic. Rome had this attitude and China has this attitude. The only one under heaven. Nationalism is a later spirit or may be an earlier one in which safety first rules but it is the kindergarten law under which that spirit operates. It can also be proven biologically as well as historically that any state or nation that ceases to stand for something higher than mere self preservation is doomed to decline. A nation finds herself in losing herself in benevolent channels.

7,083 ISLANDS
 It has been said that you cannot advocate tripartism until you arrive here to take care of them. When we took the Philippine Islands under our wing we took over 7,083 of them of which only 462 have an area of over one square mile. Only 2,441 of them have been considered of sufficient importance to name; the rest are "minor islands." They extend from the latitude of 4 degrees 4 minutes north of the equator, a thousand miles to within 65 miles from Formosa, Luzon and Mindanao are the largest, the first one being somewhat smaller than Wisconsin with 41,000 square miles, including one of the "minor islands." The other island is almost virgin and sparsely settled. The population in 1918 was approximately 10,000,000. There are 41 ethnographic groups, 80 dialects are spoken and 80 per cent of the population speak four dialects. They have all been Christians since 315, 300 Mohammedans, Magellan accidentally discovered them in 1521.

This then is our heritage. Call it a ward if you will. Some years ago while in Switzerland my eyes fell on a long editorial written by the editor of "Times" in London about our imperialistic jaunt in the Far East. The English have for many decades held the record of the greatest mudslingers in their dealings with aliens. They now do better. We are the prize cake walkers or jay walkers now and they laugh at us even out here in the Far East. The editor is questioning said that we Americans had to learn two things. The first was to keep all shooters, talkers and Filipino enthusiasts at home or then send them to Congress to blow off steam. But in sending a man to govern these people it needed some man with imagination, tact and common sense who had to everlastingly remember that you cannot make an empty bag stand.

WANT "DEAD" GOVERNOR
 They told us here that they wanted a "dead" governor beside a living one and there is some truth in it. None of the governors up to now have come to live and die in the islands. It would help a whole lot to have a governor whose grave they could decorate on May 30; it would be a strong tie to bind them to America. As it is we are accused of putting on a military government that savors so much of the old carpet bag government and resentment is coming out of the minds and mouths of many Filipino patriots.

One speaker has been telling us that the kind of governor they want was not hailed from the right corner of the states. He should come from south of the Mason and Dixie line, with pedigree, with culture and presence. He should be a student of civilizations as well as human nature. He should be to the man born from the very south which is much like the islands in climate, in habit and general atmosphere. He should possess integrity, have a knowledge of law, economics and draw power and have a native abhorrence of work and never do a stroke of it in the presence of "inferiors." We found even our teachers there lost caste when they did menial work. This governor should be an artistocrat, in position of authority, who has learned good manners and has the art of never being brusque like the average Anglo Saxon, half fellow well met, but one who recognizes no one above himself save God. He should be a man accustomed to give orders yet have pity them but invariably make requests to comply. From his moral position it must be as hard to remove him as the pyramids. By playing poker he would forget his grievances and if he has the old Yankee trading sense he will have an inherent understanding of other people.

In dealing with the Filipino the viewpoints vary. My contact with some of the leaders and five public addresses to different classes from high school to seminary students with some reactions give a little inkling of what is going on. Catholics and Protestants hold different views here. Probably it is Protestantism that is at the bottom of the seething unrest.

destiny to harmonize these cultures as far as they can be. He claims that the Filipino feels at home with the oriental and understands him and that he can do ten times better in bringing the gospel to him than we Americans can.

Our practical politicians naturally do not share all these noble prophecies of teachers and instructors whom they call visionaries. The Republicans have been the step-fathers of these Filipinos. The Democrats may be the real fathers of them; that is a mooted question. The Democratic party, because of its historical background, has been a most imperialist. When President Wilson took to guide the destinies of these islands he said at the very start: "We regard ourselves as trustees acting not for advantage for the people of the United States but for the people of the Philippine Islands. Every step we take will be taken with a view to the ultimate independence of the islands and as preparation for this independence." He then sent Harrison over as governor and with it the Jones Act of 1916 that gave wide autonomy the weakness of which was to put American ideals onto an oriental people an "empty bag" the Republicans called it. Then when the Republicans got back in power they sent the Wood-Forbes commission to look into the "scourge of Harrison" and they reported an orgy of inefficiency and corruption. Now General Wood the militarist is back and is not popular at all. He uses lower forms of authority, often indifference and silence.

President Coolidge some time ago said: "America will not relinquish now or anytime in the future some responsibility for the defense of this group of islands." Recently he has said that it was more from the economic than from the political point of view that the islands needed to be thought of. Rubber plantations are in prospect to break the backbone of the British monopoly.

Then there is the whole of the international aspect that is to be considered. There is an internal and an external side to it. Practically all nations in history have been wrecked on the rock of public finance or the reef of international intrigue. Up to now the Filipino has evinced no outstanding leadership in matters of finance. It is true that few nations come to economic independence rapidly. Rivers of blood have been shed to reach business integrity and mutual confidence for selfishness and the horrible habit of graft or "squeeze" as the English call it in the Far East is the excruciating economic ilt that not only affects the palm of the hand but the head and the heart to make it rotten and smell to heaven. The Filipino people do not realize that. They would fall victim to that at present and an outside nation would step in to govern them. It might be Japan and that country is a poor colonizer. She lacks imagination and took her government from Prussia and the Prussians are proverbial bad rulers because they lack the real imperialism for which England is noted.

Real imperialism has the faculty of putting your self in other people's place, to be willing to let them have their way at least visibly as long as you can be the power behind the throne.

Our stay in the islands was very pleasant. We found the temperature at 80 about the annual average. The American people have sunk a lot of money here. Harbors have been extended out a half mile. The parks are fine and outside of the old wall we found a good, though not large, golf ground. Ninety per cent of the taxes are paid by foreigners. The Filipino would be inclined to make it 99 per cent. The Filipino has left no monuments. The bamboo huts are old before they are erected. If that is possible. The lack of integrity among the rank and file is the heritage of Spanish misrule and will take a long while to eradicate. There are splendid business blocks and bridges over the Pasig river are modern and up to date. The "carameta" is the popular mode of locomotion, a two wheeled cart with a Filipino pony. You pay 20 centavos or ten cents for a short ride. A good street car railway operates in the city. Soldiers are naturally abundant. Many of them get drunk; there is no prohibition in the islands. Cock fighting still prevails but it is not one-twentieth as brutal as our battering system at our boxing fights. Therefore live out the robot. This pet animal is on trains, in homes and is stroked and well fed.

New Patterns in Inlaid Linoleum

That Make the Kitchen and Bath the Most Attractive Rooms in the House

A kitchen with an immaculately clean linoleum floor covering is a place that any woman regards with the greatest pride. It is not only good to look at, but so easy to keep clean. No scrubbing needed here; it can be wiped up with the damp mop in a few minutes with no back-breaking kneeling or heavy exertion.

Wild's Linoleum at $2.75 sq. yd.

Ever so many new patterns in Wild's linoleum have just come in. There are the cool greens and grays, brick and grays, and the more striking black and gray in marbled tile effect and in a quality that is unsurpassed. It makes the finest of floor coverings for the kitchen, bath and sunroom. The best grade is $2.50 a square yard and other qualities are $2.75, $2.35, $2, and $1.75 a square yard. 6 feet wide.

Armstrong's Embossed Linoleum at $2.75 a sq. yd.

Armstrong's linoleum has a nation-wide reputation for its admirable quality and its handsome patterns. The embossed hand craft linoleums look so much like the costly tile floor that one must be a sharp observer to tell the difference. In red, gray and blue at $2.75 a square yard. 6 feet wide.

Sandura Rugs Can Be Kept Immaculately Clean With Little Effort.

A felt base rug with a superior lacquer surface. The surface is not varnished, but has a hard non-absorbent finish that repels stains. Easily cleaned with the wet mop, for no scrubbing is required to make it as immaculately clean as when it was new.

Size 9x12 feet is $14.95; 9x10 feet 6 inches is $13. Size 9x9 feet is $12; Size 7 feet 6 inches by 9 feet is $9.50. Size 6x9 feet is $7.50; size 3x6 feet is $2.50. Size 18 inches by 36 inches is $6c.

—Third Floor—

Gold Seal Congoleum in Two Widths at 65c and 75c sq. yd.

Gold Seal Congoleum, 6 feet wide, appears this spring in most attractive new patterns, some subdued and others colorful enough to be counted in the decorative plan of the kitchen, dining room or bath. There are tile and all-over patterns at 65c a square yard. In the 9 foot width, it is 75c a square yard.
